The Footsteps of St. Paul.

By the author of the "Morning and Night Watches." 12mo.
Illustrated. $1.

"The 'Footsteps of St. Paul' is the title of an able and instructive work, presenting a consecutive history of the life, labors, and teachings of the great Apostle. It interweaves, in the narrative, all the direct disclosures of the Acts, the incidental intimations of the Epistles, all the outside information extant, and many conjectural statements derived from a comparison of different parts of Scripture. But he has written it in an animated and graphic style, and imbued it with a fine spirit. It leaves a strong impression on the reader's mind. It is copiously illustrated with maps and engravings, and is every way a scholarly performance."
—Evangelist.

"The Carters have published a multitude of good books, but, unless we greatly mistake, this will be reckoned among the best of them."—Puritan Recorder.

By the same author.

I. The Words of Jesus.

16mo. 40 cents.

"This admirable little volume illustrates and applies some of the precious utterances of the Blessed Saviour, in language chaste, simple, affectionate and urgent, enlightening the thoughts, exciting the affections, subduing the passions, guiding the soul, like the star of Bethlehem, to the meek and lowly Saviour."—Watchman.

II. The Mind of Jesus.

16mo. 40 cents.

III. Morning and Night Watches.

16mo. 60 cents.

"A precious volume of religious truth most pleasingly and scripturally presented for the comfort and edification of the people of God."—Observer.

IV. Family Prayers.

16mo. 75 cents.

"Simple, evangelical, earnest, and well adapted to prove a devotional help."—Christian Herald.

"Direct, fervent, and comprehensive."—Evangelist.

V. The Woodcutter, and The Exiles.

18mo. 50 cents.

VI. The Great Journey:

A PILGRIMAGE THROUGH THE VALLEY OF TEARS TO MOUNT ZION, THE CITY OF THE LIVING GOD. Illustrated. 16mo. 50 cents.

CARTERS' PUBLICATIONS.

The Rich Kinsman.

The History of Ruth the Moabitess, by Stephen H. Tyng, D.D.
16mo. $1.

"The author presents this work in the hope that it will be found adapted to enlighten the minds of the young in some of the great subjects of Scriptural instruction. . . . The author has been long impressed with the feeling that neither commentaries nor sermons have yet made that simple and practical use of the fullness of Scripture truth for which it is adapted—perhaps he might say for which it is designed. The young mind certainly can be interested in the word of God, as a book full of attraction as well as full of truth. Whoever can be made in any degree the instrument of leading to this result, by bringing out to view the real attractions of Scripture, confers so far an invaluable benefit upon others."—Extract from the Preface.

The Truth and Life.

A SERIES OF DISCOURSES. By Bishop Mellvaine, of Ohio. 8vo. $2.

"We have seldom met with a more admirable volume of Sermons than the one now lying before us. * * * The subjects are varied, but in all there is the same clearness, and fullness of Gospel truth. * * * We can assure our readers that there is a freshness and power pervading the work, which is most delightful to find in this age of flimsy sentiment and idealistic abstractions."—Banner.

The Saints' Everlasting Rest.

By Richard Baxter. The ONLY COMPLETE EDITION ever published in the United States. One volume royal 8vo. $2.

"There are no religious works which have had, next to John Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress," so extensive, increasing, and continued circulation, as those of Richard Baxter. 'The Saints' Rest' is eminently a favorite with Christians, and has been richly blessed. The volume in general use is an abridgment, well executed, of the original, and is not as much as one-half of its compass. However well condensed, an abridgment can not retain and exhibit all the merits of the original, and very many of the lovers of the smaller volume will hail and embrace the opportunity of obtaining the original work, in the present neat and acceptable form."—Christian Intelligencer.

Discourses on Truth.

By J. H. Thornwell, D.D., President of the South Carolina College, Columbia, S. C. 12mo. $1.

"The Ethics are of the loftiest standard, breathing a pure theology, and informed by a sound psychology, and presented in a form of compacted logic. It is a tonic for both mind and heart to read these able expositions of the moral system of Christianity. * * * To those who think, it will be found a dish of strong meat, the inward digestion of which will give vigor to both the mental and spiritual man."—Watchman and Observer.

Fritz Harold ; or, the Temptation.

By Mrs. Sarah A. Meyers. 16mo. Illustrated. 60 cents.

By Mrs. Thomas Geldart. Illustrated. 16mo. 75 cents.

The Christian Statesman.

A Memoir of William Wilberforce.

This new Memoir of the Christian, the patriot, and philanthropist, is from the pen of a gifted American lady, and will be read with intense interest by all classes of readers.

CARTERS' PUBLICATIONS.

The Autobiography and Reminiscences of the Rev.
Wm. Jay.

2 vols. royal 12mo. $2.50.

"Few names are so extensively known in the Christian communities of Great Britain and the United States as that of William Jay. His 'Morning and Evening Exercises' is in the great majority of Christian families. The Autobiography is written in a style of great simplicity and pleasantness. The reminiscences by Mr. Jay of prominent individuals with whom he was well acquainted—as John Newton, Richard Cecil, Robert Hall, William Wilberforce, and others, are graphic and entertaining, and replete with anecdote."—Christian Intelligencer.

"This is a delightful work. The autobiography is a simple story of his life, in letters addressed to his children, beginning with bricklayer boy at Beekford's Abbey, whose sweet face attracted the attention of Cornelius Winter, and led to the bringing out of the 'boy preacher,' and ending with the venerable patriarch of Bath, whose name and writings were known and loved all over Protestant Christendom."—Watchman.

Paley's Evidences of Christianity,

With Notes and Additions. By Charles Murray Nairne, M.A.

12mo. $1.25.

"It would be a work of supererogation, at this late day, to dwell on the peculiar excellences of Paley's treatise on the Evidences of Christianity. It is not probable it will ever be superseded. Its learning, its exactness, its wonderful clearness of thought, its logical force, are incomparable. * * * * * The American editor has fortified the points in which Paley has failed, and, by his additional matter, has unquestionably furnished the best, as well as the safest edition of Paley extant."—Presbyterian.

"The Editor of this work, we hesitate not to say, is a man of extraordinary intellect and acquirements, and he has done what it may safely be said that few are capable of doing, has given additional attraction and value to Paley's Evidences of Christianity. The introductory article, entitled 'Claims of Divine Revelation,' could never have been the production of any other than a master-mind."—Puritan Recorder.

"As one of the impregnable defenses of the historical verity of the facts of Christianity, the work of Paley stands unrivaled and complete. * * * The notes and additions of Prof. Nairne make it more valuable than any edition hitherto published. The labors of Chalmers, Hill, Wardlaw, Campbell, Alexander, Hitchcock, Miller, Birks, and many others, are here put under contribution."—Presbyterian of the West.

Containing the History and Sufferings of the Martyrs, wherein is set forth at large the whole race and course of the Church, from the primitive ages to these later times. By John Fox. A new edition, carefully revised and corrected by the Rev. W. Hobart Seymour. Royal 8vo. Illustrated.

From the Rev. John Angel James.

"Your new and cheap edition of Fox's original book needs no recommendation of mine; it deserves additional value from the present efforts, prospects and hopes of the Papacy. Every Protestant ought to know and value this affecting and dreadful illustration of the effects of Popery; if, however, my recommendation be of any worth, I most cordially give it."

From Rev. W. M. Hetherington, D.D.

"At a time like the present, when the Papal system is again threatening to resume its aggressive movements, it must be of great importance that its real character should be known. That character, in all its treachery, falsehood and persecuting cruelty, is nowhere better delineated than in the graphic pages of the memorable Martyrologist."

The Miscellaneous Works of the Rev. Matthew Henry.

2 vols. Royal 8vo.

"The lips of the righteous," said Solomon, "feed many," and in our own times especially is the assertion verified by the published relics of persons so denominated. * * * * Few individuals have been more distinguished for their endeavors to advance the Divine honor by such means, than Matthew Henry. His name, because of his productions as an author, is deservedly great in Israel; and in the gates thereof do his works praise him. His course on earth terminated long ago, but not until, in a far more exalted sense than the racers in the Grecian games, he had delivered a torch to survivors—a torch which guides to Heaven; and which has not only remained unextinguished, but still flames with increased and cheering brilliance. * * * * The habit of sprightly and apt allusion to Scripture facts, and the use of Scripture language, which Mr. Henry diligently cultivated, has not only enriched, but unspeakably enlivened his miscellaneous writings. * * * * His diction, always expressive, is often felicitous; and, though it makes no pretension to elegance, is both nervous and forcible. * * * * His allusions and imagery, in like manner, always please and always edify; the former, because they are generally scriptural; the latter, because, like the parables of our Lord, they are derived from the most common occurrences."—*Rev. Comprising his celebrated BODY OF DIVINITY, in a series of Lectures on the Shorter Catechism. Royal 8vo. $

"These catechetical lectures of the late Rev. Mr. Thomas Watson, I have read over, together with some sermons annexed to them; and, since my testimony is desired concerning them, I do hereby declare, that—though I will not undertake to justify every expression or sentence in them, or in any human writing—I find them, in the main, agreeable to the doctrinal articles of this church, and unto the Westminster Assembly Confession of Faith and Catechisms; and I believe that, through the blessing of God, they may be profitable unto the edification of all that read them with an honest desire to know and do the will of God.
"1692. WILLIAM LORIMER."

"We, whose names are subscribed, having seen the testimony of our worthy brother, Mr. William Lorimer, after his perusal of this book, doubt not but it may be of use to many,—as the former writings of Mr. Thomas Watson have been; and, with that desire and hope, we recommend it to masters of families and others.

Mabel Grant :

A Highland Story. By Randall Ballantyne. 18mo. 50 cents.

"A delightful story of Scottish life. A godly minister having left his family with slender means, the mother, by her discretion and piety, and some favorable circumstances in Divine providence, is enabled to train her daughter 'in the way she should go,' and is rewarded by seeing the development of moral excellence in her character as the latter matures to womanhood. There is much of artless simplicity and evangelical religion pervading the book."—Chronicle.

Charles Roussel ; or, Honesty and Industry.

By the author of "Three Months under the Snow." 18mo. 40 cents.

"The trials and toils of a brave young heart, with their legitimate reward, are here narrated in simple and touching language. A poor lad, early deprived of a father's care, manages to execute an apparently impracticable plan of his own invention, with such persevering industry and unshaken trust in Providence as to succeed in supporting his widowed mother and the younger children, until at last he secures for them and himself a settled and comfortable home, accompanied with the esteem and respect of the wise and good. Beloved youth, read this volume and imitate the noble virtues of Charles Roussel."—Lit. Standard.

Emblems Divine and Moral.

By Francis Quarles. 16mo. Illustrated. $1.

"The quaint, suggestive and beautiful emblems of Quarles, are reproduced in a handsome volume, full of wisdom and sanctified wit, and impressive with the most spiritual and earnest views of Divine truth."—Evangelist.

"We are greatly pleased to see this edition of the quaint old poet, Francis Quarles, whose gems sparkle as bright in their sometimes rude setting, as they did when they first appeared. They are even better appreciated now than then, since the prejudices of the times in which he lived and wrote have worn away. He has a place among the standard poets. The emblems which are given are much more quaint than the text which they may illustrate, but they serve as an index to the author's mind and his works."—Observer.

"They are theology epigrammatized—exceedingly quaint and fanciful, yet often very striking and profound. As a poet, Quarles has always taken high rank; and here the original emblematic engravings are given with the poems, and the pithy sayings of the Fathers apposite to them. It is a work which is more than curious, and will well repay study."—Evangelist.

Infidelity ;

ITS ASPECT, CAUSES AND AGENCIES. By the Rev. Thomas Pearson.

The fine edition of do. on large type. 8vo. $2.

"We have no hesitation, without knowing any thing of the author except from this work, in assigning to him a place among the most philosophical and discriminating minds of the age."—Puritan Recorder.

"This is a very able and timely book. Every minister who would have his armor well furnished, and every man who would know how to meet infidelity, as he will find it now in the world, should possess a copy of this volume."—Watchman.

"It is destined, we doubt not, to perform a high mission wherever the English language is read. It is fitted to be a mighty quickener of the intellect, as well as an efficient defender against error, and a faithful guide to evangelical truth."—Argus.

"The appearance of a great book is a great event. It makes an epoch in the history of immortal minds. This remark is emphatically true when this advent is peculiarly opportune. Now both these conditions exist in the present case. This is a great book, and it comes to us just at the right time. No attentive observer of the times needs to be told that the whole aspect of unbelief has changed within the present generation. He who would answer completely the arguments of Hume, Gibbon, Voltaire & Co., would leave unharmed the very strongholds of popular infidelity. Skepticism, beaten from its old ground, takes up an entirely new position, as confidently as if it did not know what defeat is. Now, it is on this new position, that Mr. Pearson assails unbelief, and certainly we have no reason to complain of the result of the battle. He does for this department of apologetics what his countryman, McCosh, has done for the doctrine of the Divine Government. We say to every thoughtful reader, buy this book and ponder it well. It will make its mark on every reader."—St. Louis Presb.

The Eternal Day.

By the Rev. Horatius Bonar. 18mo. 50 cents.

"This book is written and published for the joy and strength of those who are looking forward to an eternal day in heaven. The discussion is scriptural and full of unction and power. The Right of the Bible in the Common Schools.

By George B. Cheever, D.D. 16mo. 75 cents.

"We wish that this book might circulate so widely that it should enter beneath every roof, and be read by every individual who has any interest in the purity and the prosperity of our common schools—and who has not? Dr. Cheever's argument is unanswerable. It effectually disposes of all the sophistry with which this subject has been invested by designing ecclesiastics and demagogues. His logic is the plain common sense that commends itself to the judgment of plain and honest men."—Christian Times.

Daniel ;

A MODEL FOR YOUNG MEN. By the Rev. W. A. Scott, D.D. 8vo. $1.50.

"The topic is one of deepest interest, and probably no character in the sacred Scriptures is more admirably suited to be held up as a model to young men, than that of the Prophet Daniel. The style of the work is fresh, vigorous and bold, and reveals an original mind accustomed to do its own thinking. Altogether the volume is one of no ordinary interest and value, and we trust may lead many a young man to imitate the lofty principle, the incorruptible integrity, and the unwavering piety of the youthful prophet."—Southern Churchman.

Florence Egerton ;

Or, SUNSHINE AND SHADOW. By the author of "Clara Stanley," &c. Illustrated. 16mo. 75 cents.

"The story of Florence is instructive and interesting, and is designed to impress upon the young the advantage of cultivating early and constantly cheerful and kind feelings towards their associates. Florence was early left an orphan, and hence educated and disciplined among partial strangers; but the lessons and trials of her youth developed a character of rare excellence, which may be safely commended to the imitation of readers."—Presbyterian of the West.

"The heroine of this tale is a young lady who, under a somewhat diversified experience of the good and evil of human life, formed a calm and quiet character, while yet it was distinguished for cheerfulness and energy. It is an attractive story, and the example which it exhibits, and the moral lessons it suggests, are admirable."—Puritan Recorder.

BROWN (JOHN, D.D.)—Expository Lectures on the First Epistle of Peter. One thick 8vo volume. $2 50.

Of this work, the North British Review says:—“It is neither Scottish nor German, but sprung from the high and rare union of the best qualities of both schools in a single mind. It has the Scottish clearness, precision, orthodoxy, practicality; the German learning, minuteness of investigation, and disregard of tradition; and for certain qualities too rare in both—resolute adherence to the very truth of the passage—unforced development of the connection, and basing of edification on the right meaning of the Scripture, we have not met with anything in either country that surpasses it.”

"The Analogy of Butler enjoys a reputation scarcely second to any other book than the Bible; to praise it would be a work of supererogation. As a specimen of analogical reasoning, we suppose it has never been equalled; and its influence, in promoting ministerial efficiency, can hardly be overrated. Some ministers are in the habit of reading it, carefully, once every year. The Analogy occupies about one half the volume; the remainder consists of Dissertations and Sermons."—N. E. Puritan.

"The life and religious experience of Mrs. Hawkes is replete with interest to all who desire to study the grace of God as it is developed in the daily life, habits, and conversation of those who may be justly regarded as exemplifying the hidden meaning of the words—'the secret of the Lord is with them that fear him.' The records of her life are the more interesting because there are inwoven in them so many incidents connected with Cecil. "Dr. Cheever's name will go down to posterity conjoined with the immortal dreamer, in a union no less intimate, though more honorable, than that of Johnson and Boswell. As a commentator of Bunyan he stands without peer or rival. Scott has furnished notes for the text valued for their discrimination and piety; Dr. Hamilton and Robert Philip have contributed brilliant monographs in illustration of his genius; other eminent writers have labored in the same department, but Dr. Cheever has won the palm from all competitors. We can bestow no higher praise on the volume than to say it is worthy of its subject, and all readers of the charming allegory should not fail to read the Lectures."—Ch. Chronicle.

Daily Commentary. Exposition of Select Portions of Scripture for every Morning and Evening throughout the Year; a Companion to "Family Worship." By One Hundred and Eighty Clergymen of Scotland. 8vo. Cloth, $3; half calf, $4; morocco, $5.

The work entitled "Family Worship; a Series of Prayers for every Morning and Evening throughout the Year, by One Hundred and Eighty Clergymen of Scotland," was published about a year ago. That volume, reprinted from the Glasgow edition, formed only a portion of the work issued in Scotland, each prayer in the Scotch edition being accompanied by a brief comment on some portion of Scripture. In order to render them more available, the Prayers were reprinted separately, and now, to complete the work, the Expository and Practical Comments on Scripture are embodied in this volume, uniform with "Family Worship."

This "Daily Commentary," however, is not only a valuable companion to "Family Worship," but it is also admirably adapted to the purposes of private devotion. It is believed, both on account of its variety and ability, to be unsurpassed, if not unequalled by any previous work of daily devotional exercise.

'A new work from the great mind and heart of Edwards, on such a subject as Christian Love, we hardly shall need to commend. We find in it the same exhaustive analysis, the same earnest spirituality, and wonderful familiarity with both the Bible and the human heart, which distinguish his great treatise on the Affections. How true to the high standard of gospel truth, and how affectionately severe to the reader's soul.'—Evangelist.

"This book contains thirty-two sermons by the most noted living preachers of England. Among the contributors to the volume are found Melvill, Bradley, Moore, Bloomfield, Cummins, Fletcher, Hamilton, Noel, Jay, Raffles, James, Newton, and Bunting. The Sermons are highly evangelical in sentiment, and set forth clearly and fervently the great doctrines of the Gospel."—Watchman and Observer.

ERSKINE (RALPH)—Gospel Sonnets; or, Spiritual Songs. With a portrait of the author. 18mo. 50 cents.

"This is a most delightful volume, full of beautiful thought and gospel gems, to comfort, cheer, and enrapture the believer travelling from earth to glory. These songs of Erskine will keep his soul in tune, and prepare him the better to join the full chorus of the redeemed in heaven."—Am. Spectator.

Evidences of Christianity; a Series of Lectures delivered at the University of Virginia, by eminent Clergymen of the Presbyterian Church. With 13 portraits by Ritchie. 8vo. $2 50.

Among the contributors to this great work are Drs. Alexander, Rice, Breckenridge, M'Gill, Ruffner, Sampson, Green, Rev. T. V. Moore, &c.

"This is a noble contribution to sound logic, elegant literature, and pure Christianity. It consists of a series of discourses, delivered by some of the greater lights of the Presbyterian Church, illustrative of the divine authority of the Christian religion. Though one star in the volume differeth from another, yet there is not one that shines dimly or feebly, while their aggregate glory is very great. It deserves to become, and it can hardly fail to become, a standard work in this department of our Christian literature."—Argus.

"As an Essayist, John Foster is a bright and shining light. As different as possible from Addison, Steele, and Johnson, he far excels them in the importance of his subjects, and in the originality, largeness, and vigor of his conceptions. Foster is one of those who apply to their topics the most critical analysis, and bring to their treatment a cultivated perception, and a rich store of varied knowledge.

"To praise Gray's poems, and especially the Elegy in the Country Churchyard, would be little less than an insult to the intelligence of our readers. But there are some things about the book which we may afford to speak of, as they are not altogether a matter of course. The critical observations at the commencement, are a fitting introduction to the work, as they tell us who the poet was, as well as what he did. The illustrations are just about as beautiful as art can make them. The typography and the paper are both exquisite; and the copy which we have at least, has tasked the skill of the bookbinder to the utmost. It is every way a beautiful book."—Puritan Recorder.

We know nothing finer from the pen of even Wilson, than the splendid picture of Loch Lomond, with which the second chapter opens, or the death and burial of the noble lady of Rosshu, with which the last closes."

HENGSTENBERG (E. W.)—The Revelation of St. John.

Expounded for those who Search the Scriptures. Translated by Patrick Fairbairn. 2 vols., 8vo. $3 50.

"No living theologian is better acquainted with the Old Testament than the author of this able and elaborate work. He is, consequently, well prepared to expound those parts of the New, the imagery of which is borrowed from the Old. He has brought to his task, in the present instance, great learning, deep piety, and unquenchable ardor in the investigation of truth. That he has, in everything, written wisely and correctly, is more than can be said; but he has produced a work of great research, and of unquestionable value to those who search the Scriptures."—Central Christian Herald.

*HENRY (MATTHEW)—An Exposition of the Old and New

Testaments, largely Illustrated with Practical Remarks and Observations, with a Life of the author by the Rev. SAMUEL PALMER, and an Introductory Preface by the late A. ALEXANDER, D.D. 6 vols., royal 8vo. Sheep. $10 00.

Do. do. Fine Edition, on larger and finer paper, and elegantly bound in half calf. $16 00.

"This work has now been before the Christian community for more than a hundred years, and has, from its first publication, been so well received, and is so generally approved, that all recommendation of the work seems now superfluous. Many other valuable commentaries, it is true, have been given to the public since this work was first edited, and have deservedly gained for themselves a high estimation and extensive circulation. But it may be safely said, that Henry's Exposition of the Bible has not been superseded by any of these publications; and in those points in which its peculiar excellence consists, remains unrivalled. For some particular purposes, and in some particular respects, other commentaries may be preferable; but, taking it as a whole, and as adapted to every class of readers, this Commentary may be said to combine more excellences than any work of the kind which was ever written in any language."—Rev. Dr. Alexander.

HETHERINGTON (Rev. Wm. M.)—History of the Church of Scotland, from the Introduction of Christianity to the period of the Disruption in 1843. 8vo. $1 50.

"This is in every respect a work of great merit. It contains the history of one of the most interesting portions of the Christian Church, and is distinguished as well by its neat and graceful style, as by the fulness, perspicuity, and so far as we can judge, fidelity of its statements."

— History of the Westminster Assembly of Divines.
12mo. 75 cents.

HEWITSON (Rev. W. H.)—Memoir of. By the Rev. J. BAILLIE.
Portrait. 12mo. 85 cents.

"This is a book to make one sad, but only with that sadness that makes the heart better. It is sad to see a star so bright and beautiful in its heavenly track, blotted out of sight ere it reached its zenith; and sad to think how few such burning and shining lights are left behind."—Watchman.

HILL (GEORGE)—Lectures on Divinity. 8vo. $2 00.

"The candor and fairness of this author are remarkable. In stating the opinions of opponents he is singularly impartial, and states their arguments in their full strength—an unflinching indication of real greatness, and assured confidence in the soundness of his own. You feel yourself in a serene and refreshing atmosphere, as you follow him in these pages, and are everywhere instructed. His notices, or history of varying opinions in theology, are very valuable."—Christian Mirror.

*HORNE (THOS. H.)—An Introduction to the Critical Study and Knowledge of the Holy Scriptures. By THOMAS HARTWELL HORNE, B.D., of St. John's College, Cambridge. New edition, corrected and enlarged. Illustrated with numerous Maps and fac-similes of Biblical Manuscripts. 2 vols.; royal 8vo. Half cloth. $3 50. In 1 vol. Sheep. $4 00. In 2 vols. Full cloth. $4 00. 2 vols. Library style. $5 00.

"To commend Horne's Introduction to the clergy, or other students of the sacred oracles, would be 'carrying coals to Newcastle.' It has long been regarded as an indispensable work for a theological library, and has acquired among Biblical scholars—at least English Scholars—a deservedly high repute. It is a work of gigantic labor. The results of the research and erudition of Biblical scholars of all countries, and in all time, are faithfully garnered, and, on the whole, well digested."—N. Y. Evangelist.

— (Bishop)—A Commentary on the Book of Psalms.

To which is prefixed an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. EDWARD IRVING, of London. 8vo. $1 50.

"His style is lucid, and often terse; his reflections grow naturally out of the sentiments of the passage on which he comments, and there breathes through the whole so much sympathy with the Psalmist in his humble views of himself, and his exalted conceptions of Jehovah; there is such a heavenly, sweet frame of mind exhibited, so much spirituality, and such love for the Redeemer, as to render this commentary one of peculiar fitness for family reading."

HOWARD (JOHN)—Or, the Prison World of Europe, by HERWORTH DIXON, Esq. 1 vol., 12mo. 75 cents.

"Of Howard, it has been said, 'He lived an Apostle, and died a Martyr.' He traversed the civilized world, and entered its gloomy prison houses, to reduce the sum of human misery."—Chn. Observer.

HOWELL—Perfect Peace. Letters Memorial of the late JOHN WARREN HOWELL, Esq., of Bath. By the Rev. DAVID PITCAIRN. With an Introduction by the Rev. JOHN STEVENSON. 18mo. 30 cts.

HOWIE (JOHN)—The Scots Worthies; containing a brief Historical Account of the most eminent Noblemen, Gentlemen, Ministers, and others who have suffered for the Reformation. 8vo. $1 50.

"This is an old work famous in Scotch literature, and a worthy companion of Fox's Book of Martyrs. It is a circumstantial history of the principal sufferers of the Covenanters, and others, whose heroic devotion to truth and liberty are worthy of everlasting remembrance and admiration. There is not a name in this long catalogue that does not deserve embalming; their history and memory constitute the richest of Scotland's possessions. The perusal of such a work is well adapted to our times; and it affords, aside from its noble illustrations of Christian principle, a very clear history of religious liberty in Scotland."—Evangelist.

JACOBUS (MELANCTHON W., D.D.)—Notes on the Gospels: Critical and Explanatory. And incorporating with the notes, on a new plan, the most approved harmony of the four Gospels. With illustrations, by MELANCTHON W. JACOBUS, D.D., Professor of Biblical Literature in the Western Theological Seminary, at Alleghany, Pa.

VOLUME I.—Matthew. 12mo. 75 cents.

"We are greatly mistaken in our estimate of this new work, if it does not become the general favorite in our country as the guide book to the study of the sacred volume. It appears, to our mind, the book we have desired; it embraces the marrow of all the best writers and commentators on the gospels, and the admirable style in which it is published enhances its value. We confidently predict a large sale and its rapid introduction to our Sabbath Schools." Christian Alliance and Visitor.

VOLUME II.—Mark and Luke. 12mo. 75 cents.

"We view with complacency every attempt to make the historical Scriptures, and especially the Gospels, more familiar as a subject of popular instruction. But we are particularly pleased to see this responsible work in the hands of those who combine the advantages of literary training and pastoral experience."—Princeton Review.

75 cents

"It is practical, heart-searching, solemn, affectionate, earnest."—Spectator.

— The Course of Faith; or, the Practical Believer Delineated. 75 cents.

"We have oftentimes reviewed the works of Mr. James with personal and religious profit, but it has seldom been our pleasure to welcome and peruse a more sterling work from his pen than the one before us. Faith and its nature, its office and effects, is but faintly understood by even our most consistent Christians;—the author has succeeded in a most surprising manner, and with his usually impressive style, to demonstrate the nature of faith in its theoretical, practical and experimental influences upon the heart and the life. The Course of Faith is a rich treasury of piety, knowledge, boundless compassion, and vigorous thought."—Baptist Memorial.

— The Young Woman's Friend and Guide through Life to Immortality. 16mo. 75 cents.

"We doubt very much if Mr. James has ever made a better book than this. Those traits of character which give beauty, strength, and power to youthful females are here set forth in that glowing and earnest language which mark this author's writings, and if we had it in our power we should be happy to lay this volume upon the toilet table of every young lady of our acquaintance." N. Y. Observer.

Law and the Testimony, by the author of the "Wide Wide World," "Queechy," &c. 8vo. $3 00.

"Not a treatise nor an essay, neither hath it any human writing at all. It is simply a gathering of the whole Bible testimony on each of the cardinal points of Christian belief, there left to speak for itself. Beneath these grand general heads, about thirty in number, there are no sub-divisions and no artifices of arrangement or collocation; with only an instance or two of exception. Nothing of secondary or partial interest is touched upon. The end and aim of the work is towards the perfecting and beautifying of the faith of Christians, by enabling them to see not only 'the truth,' but the 'whole truth,' and towards establishing the faith of other Christians by setting forth the broad foundation laid for it. For many know but in part the curious articulation of the Christian system; here 'bone is joined to bone,' and the whole body of divinity stands in its full proportions and on its own feet."

LEYBURN (JOHN, D.D.)—The Soldier of the Cross. 12mo. $1.

"Like Wilberforce's 'Practical View,' it has the combined characteristics of the regular finished essay, and the rhetorical, heart-searching appeal. Sound practical instruction is here presented in a most attractive form. The original passage commented on, is singularly bold and beautiful, both in conception and in expression; and the ideas embodied within its imagery are, in this volume, admirably exhibited to the reader's mind. The work is valuable, not only as an instructive treatise for the perusal of the private Christian, but as a model of pulpit oratory in a walk now too seldom trodden."—Presbyterian of the West.

"The tenderness of his conscience—the truthfulness of his character—his deadness to the world—his deep humility and exalted devotion—his consuming love to Christ, and the painful solicitude with which he eyed everything affecting his honor—the fidelity with which he denied himself, and told others of their faults or dangers—his meekness in bearing wrong, and his unwearied industry in doing good—the mildness which tempered his unyielding firmness, and the jealousy for the Lord of Hosts which commanded but did not supplant the yearnings of a most affectionate heart, rendered him altogether one of the loveliest specimens of the Spirit's workmanship."—Rev. James Hamilton, of London.

McCOSH (JAMES, D.D.)—The Divine Government, Physical and Moral. 8vo. $2 00.

"If this work wants the attraction of previous literary reputation in the author, the disadvantage is compensated by the surpassing interest and peculiar reasonableness of its subject. The mere title of the book, as indicating an inquiry that must needs embrace some of the deepest questions that have ever exercised the human intellect, is sure to draw the attention of those who are addicted to speculative studies. A glance at its contents will satisfy such that it is deserving of a careful perusal; and once perused, it cannot fail, we should think, to leave an impression of wonder that, for the first time, the author should have become known to the public by a work of such pre-eminent merit. Nor do we fear to hazard the assertion, that he has thus, by a single stride, secured for himself a position in literature such as few ever reached by a first publication, and one which he might never have attained had he put forth in separate and more limited efforts the learning and thought which he has concentrated on this."—North British Review.

MENTEATH—Lays of the Kirk and Covenant. By Mrs. A. STUART MENTEATH. 16mo. Illustrated. 75 cents.

"It is a long time since we have enjoyed such a treat as this volume has given us. No nation on the face of the globe has a history so full of interest to the Christian as that of Scotland. Her soil has been consecrated by conflicts, more noble than those immortalized in Homer's song. We are glad to find that Mrs. Menteath has the true spirit of the ballad—wild, plaintive and soul-moving, and we would say to all lovers of ballads, get this beautifully-printed and illustrated volume."

Near Home, or, the Countries of Europe described, by the author of the "Peep of Day," &c. 18mo. 50 cents.

"This is really a charming book ; and in this estimation we have no doubt every docile boy and girl will agree with us. Systematic knowledge, derived from geographies and histories, is, of course, indispensable ; but the information conveyed in the familiar style of this book is received with more pleasure and eagerness, and becomes even more deep and enduring. We have here literally a picture of Europe."—Ch. Intelligencer.

NEWTON—The Works of the Rev. John Newton, of St. Mary's Woolworth, London. Containing an Authentic Narrative, etc. ; Letters ; Discourses ; Olney Hymns ; Poems ; Messiah ; and Tracts. To which are prefixed Memoirs of his Life, &c., by the Rev. RICHARD CECIL, A.M. Complete in one volume. New edition, with fine portrait by Ritchie. $2 00.

"If there is any name of modern times consecrated in the grateful remembrances and affections of the Christian, it is that of John Newton. His conversion to Christianity was scarcely less remarkable than that of Saul of Tarsus ; and his subsequent course through a long and laborious life, was in many respects quite analogous to the course of the great Apostle to the Gentiles."

OBSERVATIONS.	OLD SEA CAPTAIN.
ADDRESSES.	GRAND PARENTS.
THOUGHTS.	ISLE OF WIGHT.
WALKS IN LONDON.	PITHY PAPERS.
HOMELY HINTS.	PLEASANT PAPERS.
COUNTRY STROLLS.	NORTH AMERICAN INDIANS.

"We know of no writer of the present day who seems to us more sure of meeting a cordial welcome from his readers, upon every fresh appearance, than Old Humphrey. His beautiful illustrations, both of nature and art, joined with a strong religious feeling, and a certain familiarity and quaintness becoming an old man, give to his works a charm to which few readers can be insensible."

Old White Meeting-house.—By the author of "Life in New York," &c. 18mo. 40 cents.

OLMSTED—Thoughts and Counsels for the Impenitent. By the Rev. J. M. OLMSTED. 18mo. 50 cents.

*OWEN—The Works of John Owen, D.D. 16 vols., 8vo. $20.

"This edition has been carefully compared with the earliest editions of Dr. Owen's Works, (who has been often and justly styled the 'Prince of Divines,') and no exertion has been spared to render it, in all respects, the best edition that has ever appeared."

— On Spiritual Mindedness. 12mo. 60 cents.

PALEY—Horæ Paulinæ. By WILLIAM PALEY, D.D., author of "Natural Theology," &c. 8vo. 75 cents.

PASCAL—The Provincial Letters of BLAISE PASCAL. A new translation, with Historical Introduction and Notes by the Rev. THOS. MCCRIE. $1 00.

"It were superfluous to say anything in commendation of these world-famous letters. The translation before us is done by an accomplished scholar, and hence will give a better view of the wit and force of the original, than those that preceded it."

Pastor's Daughter (The)—or, the Way of Salvation Explained to a Young Inquirer, from Reminiscences of the Conversations of her late Father, Edward Payson, D.D. By LOUISA PAYSON HOPKINS. 18mo. 40 cents.

CARTERS' PUBLICATIONS.

PATERSON—A Concise System of Theology on the Basis of the Shorter Catechism. By ALEXANDER SMITH PATERSON, A.M. 18mo. 50 cents.

"The Rev. Dr. Brewster, of Craig, Scotland—good authority on theological matters—describes this treatise 'as being one of the most beautiful, complete, and accurate expositions of the Shorter Catechisms which has ever appeared.'"

PEARSON (Rev. THOMAS)—Infidelity ; its Aspects, Causes, and Agencies, being the prize essay of the British organization of the Evangelical Alliance. 8vo. $2.00

"It occupies a distinct field from most of the other recent volumes on this subject ; for while these state the argument in defence of Christianity, or answer the principal objections of infidels, Mr. Pearson gives us a panoramic view of infidelity itself. We know not indeed any book which gives so full and so accurate a description of the various aspects which infidelity, in the present age, has assumed. To ministers of the gospel and to all who are brought into contact with the prevailing unbelief of the day, this volume will be peculiarly valuable, while it cannot fail to be deeply interesting to every thoughtful Christian. We congratulate the Church on having among its ministers one so able to do battle for the faith once delivered to the saints ; and we congratulate the author on having produced a book which will win for him a high place in the estimation of all who love the truth as it is in Jesus."—United Presbyterian Magazine.

Peep of Day ; or, the Earliest Religious Instruction the Infant Mind is capable of receiving. 18mo. 30 cents.

PHILIP (Rev. ROBERT)—Devotional Guides ; comprising Guides to the Perplexed, Devotional, Thoughtful, Doubting, and Conscientious, to which is added, Redemption, or, the New Song in Heaven. 2 vols., 12mo. $1 50.

"These subjects are treated in a way that will be satisfactory to all serious minds. The author's style is evidently fitted to the work he has undertaken. It is simple, pure, terse, intelligible, occasionally highly beautiful and forcible, without affectation, labored effort or heaviness. I should regard the extensive circulation of these Guides as fitted to promote the spirituality of Christians, to make them acquainted with their own hearts, and with the power of the religion they profess to love."—Rev. Albert Barnes.

LYDIAS, or, the Development of Female Character. 40 cts.

HANNAHS, or, Maternal Influences on Sons. 40 cents.

"The fine discrimination of character, the sweet spirit, and just views of these works, we have always very much admired. We deem them among the most useful works for the reading of Christian females that we know of. There are but few varieties of woman's trials, fears, duties, and wants, which do not here find sympathy and counsel."—Evangelist

The more difficult terms are explained; seeming contradictions reconciled; doubts resolved, and the whole text opened. 3 vols. Imperial 8vo., printed on fine linen paper. In cloth, $10; in half calf, $12.

“The late Rev. Richard Cecil said, ‘If we mus. have commentators, as we certainly must, Poole is incomparable, and I had almost said, abundant of himself;’ and the Rev. E. Bickersteth, amongst his ‘Hints to Christian Students,’ recommended it as ‘judicious and full.’ The Rev. Thomas Hartwell Horne, in his ‘Introduction to the Critical Study of the Holy Scriptures,’ remarks—‘The Annotations are mingled with the text, and are allowed to be very judicious; and he who wishes to understand the Scriptures will rarely consult them without advantage. (This) the imperial 8vo edition, is very beautifully and correctly printed.’”

RUTHERFORD—Letters of the Rev. Samuel Rutherford.

With a Sketch of his Life by the Rev. A. A. BONAR, author of the "Memoir of McCheyne." 8vo. $1 50.

"Rutherford's Letters is one of my classics. Were truth the beam, I have no doubt, that if Homer, and Virgil, and Horace, and all that the world has agreed to idolize, were weighed against that book, they would be lighter than vanity."—Cecil.

RYLE (Rev. J. C.)—Living or Dead? A Series of Home Truths. 16mo. 75 cents.

"A deeply practical and earnest address on personal religion, written in a pointed, taking style, and with a most commendable directness. It graphically paints the lost condition of the soul by nature, and the way of recovery; and then pungently addresses arguments to the sinner to flee the wrath to come."—Evangelist.

—— Wheat or Chaff? A Series of Home Truths. 16mo. 75 cts.

"Mr. Ryle is one of our most searching and earnest practical writers. He writes like a man who was not only familiar with the throne of grace and the Bible, but who also lived in close communion with the spirit and writings of such men as Baxter, and Flavel, and the older Puritans. Hence his words ring like the sound of a trumpet, and he speaks like a man awake. The present volume is in the same strain with its excellent predecessor, 'Living or Dead?' and is designed more especially for professed Christians."—Watchman.

—— Startling Questions. 16mo. 75 cents.

"Few writers hold a more vigorous pen than the author of this little volume. The questions are pressed home upon the conscience of the reader, and their consideration urged, by motives which make their appeal to the noblest feelings of our nature."—Genessee Evangelist.

CARTERS' PUBLICATIONS.

Scotia's Bards—Comprising the choicest productions of the Scottish Poets, accompanied with brief sketches of each. Elegantly illustrated. Cloth, $ . Full gilt, $ . Turkey mor. $ .

This work comprises the most exquisite effusions of Thomson, Ramsay, Blair, Falconer, Beattie, Ossian, McNeil, Bruce, Logan, Burns, Graham, Scott, Hogg, Tannahill, Leyden, Knox, Campbell, Cunningham, Pringle, Pollok, Motherwell, Gilfillan, Bethune, Nicoll, More, Wilson, Mackay, Aytoun, Smith, and others. The poets of England and America, and even those of Germany, Italy, and France have been grouped together in many a graceful and fragrant wreath, while those of Scotland hitherto remain ungathered. It has been the desire of the Editor to give a selection—in most cases, complete poems—from each of the best or most noted poets. The selections have been the most copious from the minor poets—those least known in this country—among them will be found some of the most exquisite productions of genius. Accompanying the selections there is a brief sketch of each poet.

SCOUGAL—The Works of the Rev. Henry Scougal. Together with his Funeral Sermon by Dr. GARDNER, and an account of his Life and Writings. 18mo. 40 cents.

*Self-explanatory Reference Bible. The Holy Bible of the authorized Version with Marginal Reading, and Original and Selected Parallel References PRINTED AT LENGTH. 8vo. Turkey morocco, $6.00. Half calf, $4.50

"While the importance of Reference Bibles is admitted by all, it cannot be denied that their utility is much impaired by the time and labor required in turning to numerous passages. To remedy this defect the present edition has been prepared. Its peculiar object is to set before the reader, at a glance, the very words of those passages which are best fitted to illustrate the text, or to throw satisfactory light on its meaning."

SERLE (AMBROSE)—The Christian Remembrancer. 32mo. Gilt. 50 cents.

— Letters to my Pupils, with Narrative and Biographical Sketches. Illustrated with a fine portrait of the authoress, engraved expressly for this work by Ritchie. 16mo. 75 cents.

— Olive Leaves. Illustrated. 18mo. 50 cents.

"This is a sweet book of delightful moral and religious tendency. History, biography, story and poetry are here intermingled in a manner both charming and instructive, making it one of the best of children's gift books."—Indep't.

— The Faded Hope. 18mo. 50 cents.

"We have in this little volume a most touching account of the life and death of a highly promising youth, from the pen of his bereaved mother. Everything about the book bespeaks the smitten yet submissive heart. With the breathings of maternal love, it combines excellent taste, deep pathos, and exalted Christian feeling."—Puritan Recorder.

— Memoir of Mrs. Harriet N. Cook. 16mo. 75 cents.

"This is a valuable little reminiscence of a devoted Christian lady, who died in the midst of her hopes, her enjoyments and usefulness. We see the tokens of Christian refinement, and excellence of character, which adorn the fireside, which fitly fill the place of wife and mother, and qualify for usefulness in every intelligent circle."—Chr. Parlor Magazine.

— The Boy's Book. Illustrated. 18mo. 40 cents.

"We recommend the book most earnestly to our young readers, and hope that every parent who has a bright-eyed, joyous little boy, will try whether his eye will not grow brighter and his joy deeper, by the possession of such a volume as 'The Boy's Book.'"—Watchman and Observer.

— The Girl's Book. Illustrated. 18mo. 40 cents.

— The Child's Book. Illustrated. Square. 35 cents.

"A handsome little volume for the instruction and entertainment of children. Its pictorial embellishments and its easy lessons will delight them, while imparting to their opening minds some of the most salutary counsels."—Ch. Obs.

SYMINGTON—The Atonement and Intercession of Jesus Christ. By the Rev. WM. SYMINGTON. 12mo. 75 cents.

"This work is the production of one of the most profound theological writers of the day. It takes up the general subject to which it relates, in its various bearings, and shows that the atonement, properly understood, connects itself with everything that gives life and value to Christianity."

CARTERS' PUBLICATIONS.

TAYLOR (JEREMY)—The Sermons of Jeremy Taylor, D.D.

Complete in one volume. 8vo. $1 50.

"This is a massive volume, printed in double-column, and embracing sixty-four not very brief sermons, from the pen of one who, although a Lord Bishop, we better know under the familiar name of Jeremy Taylor. We should be very reluctant to endorse Jeremy Taylor's high churchism, with his no small spice of superstition, or to hold him up as a safe guide in religious matters; the reader must make abatement in these respects; yet, after all, who cannot relish his often fine and affluent thoughts, his no less striking and eloquent language, his poetical imagery, and his bright and picturesque painting, or afford to make up a theological library without reserving a niche for him?"
—Presbyterian.

— (ISAAC)—Loyola; or, Jesuitism in its Rudiments, by ISAAC TAYLOR. 12mo. 75 cents.

"In its historic details it is fair, perspicuous, and sufficiently minute; in its reasonings it is luminous, ingenious, and to ourselves at least, generally irresistible."—Argus.

— Natural History of Enthusiasm. 12mo. 75 cents.

"Every one will remember the 'enthusiasm' of delight with which this work and those belonging to the same series were greeted on their first issue. It was the discovery of a new 'placet' of thought; and although severe tests have shown that all is not gold that glitters; and that some of the brightest surfaces of splendid thought were very thin, yet they have also shown that there was genuine bullion there."—Watchman and Observer.

THOLUCK's Circle of Human Life. 30 cents.

Three Months under the Snow. The Journal of a Young Inhabitant of the Jura. Translated from the French. 18mo. 30 cts.

"The details of this little book, are of a most exciting character, and the spirit which it breathes, as well as the lesson which it teaches, is one of Christian trust and fortitude."—Puritan Recorder.

CARTERS' PUBLICATIONS.

TUCKER (Miss E.)—The Rainbow in the North. Illustrated. 18mo. 50 cents.

"The emblem of the Rainbow, as applied to the Christian missionary, is peculiarly beautiful. This account of Prince Rupert's Land, and the arrival of the first missionary, Rev. John West, at Red River Colony, is exceedingly interesting. He is afterward joined by fellow-laborers in the great work of salvation—and amid trials by flood and famine, and many other difficulties and sufferings, they are at length rewarded by winning souls to Christ."—Republican.

POETRY AND THE DRAMA.

The Works of Shakespeare, reprinted from the newly discovered copy of the Folio of 1632 in the possession of J. PAYNE COLLIER, containing nearly Twenty Thousand Manuscript Corrections, with a History of the Stage to the Time, an Introduction to each Play, a Life of the Poet, etc. By J. PAYNE COLLIER, F. S. A. To which are added, Glossarial and other Notes, the Readings of former editions, a PORTRAIT after that by Martin Droeshout, a Vignette Title on Steel, and a Fac-simile of the Old Folio, with the Manuscript Corrections. 1 vol. Imperial 8vo. Cloth, $4; sheep, $4 25; half morocco, plain, $5 00; marble edges, $5 50; half calf, or morocco extra, $6 00; full morocco, antique, $7 00.

Same as above, cheap edition, cloth, $3 00; sheep, $3 50; imitation morocco, full gilt, $4 00.

The Works of Shakespeare, same as above.

Uniform in size with the celebrated Chiswick Edition, 8 vols. 16mo. cloth, $6 00; half calf or morocco, plain, $10 00; half calf or morocco, extra, $12 00.

These are American Copyright Editions, the Notes being expressly prepared for the work. The English edition contains simply the text, without a single note or indication of the changes made in the text. In the present, the variations from old copies are noted by reference of all changes to former editions (abbreviated f. e.), and every indication and explanation is given essential to a clear understanding of the author. The prefatory matter, Life, &c. are fuller than in any American edition now published.

This is the only correct edition of the works of the "Bard of Avon" ever issued, and no lover or student of Shakespeare should be without it.—Philadelphia Argus.

Altogether the most correct, and therefore the most valuable, edition extant.—Albany Express.

This edition of Shakespeare will ultimately supersede all others. It must certainly be deemed an essential acquisition by every lover of the great dramatist.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

Notes and Emendations of Shakespeare.

Notes and Emendations to the Text of Shakespeare's Plays, from the Early Manuscript Corrections in a copy of the folio of 1632, in the possession of JOHN PAYNE COLLIER, F. S. A. Third edition, with a fac-simile of the Manuscript Corrections. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 50.

It is not for a moment to be doubted, we think, that in this volume a contribution has been made to the clearness and accuracy of Shakespeare's text, by far the most important of any offered or attempted since Shakespeare lived and wrote.—London Examiner.

This volume is an almost indispensable companion to any of the editions of Shakespeare, so numerous and often important are many of the corrections.—Register, Philadelphia.

Lillian, and other Poems. BY WINTHROP

MACKWORTH PRAED. Now first collected. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 00.

A timely publication is this volume. A more charming companion (in the shape of a book) can scarcely be found for the summer holidays.—New York Tribune.

They are amusing sketches, gay and sprightly in their character, exhibiting great facility of composition, and considerable powers of satire.—Hartford Courant.

There is a brilliant play of fancy in "Lillian," and a moving tenderness in "Josephine," for which it would be hard to find equals. We welcome, therefore, this first collected edition of his works.—Albany Express.

Lays of the Scottish Cavaliers. By WILLIAM

E. AYTOUN, Professor of Literature and Belles-Lettres in the University of Edinburgh, and Editor of Blackwood's Magazine. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

Since Lockhart and Macaulay's ballads, we have had no metrical work to be compared in spirit, vigor, and rhythm, with this. These ballads embody and enbalm the chief historical incidents of Scottish history—literally in "thoughts that breathe and words that burn." They are full of lyric energy, graphic description, and genuine feeling.—Home Journal.

The fine ballad of "Montrose" in this collection is alone worth the price of the book.—Boston Transcript.

Firmilian; a Spasmodic Tragedy. By T. PERCY JONES, [W. E. Aytoun.] Price 50 cents.

"Firmilian" is no coarse, off-hand effort, wherein pages of nonsense are endured for the sake of a few happy hits. Its sole merit is not in its idea. It is a carefully conceived and thoroughly elaborated production, and in point of execution, it is really admirable. The great object of the piece, doubtless, is to ridicule Alexander Smith, who is set forth as T. Percy Jones himself. Many passages are exquisite hits at the Smith style, and there are occasional dabs at Tennyson, Carlyle, Gilfillan, and others. The whole affair is beautifully done, and as before hinted, it has lines and passages of great vigor.—Boston Post.

Bon Gaultier never "did" a better thing, not even excepting those celebrated ballads—Albany Express.

The Book of Ballads. By BON GAULTIER.

1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price 75 cents.

Here is a book for everybody who loves classic fun. It is made up of ballads of all sorts, each a capital parody upon the style of some one of the best lyric writers of the time, from the thundering versification of Lockhart and Macaulay, to the sweetest and simplest strains of Wordsworth and Tennyson. The author is one of the first scholars, and one of the most finished writers of the day, and this production is but the frolic of his genius in play-time.—Courier and Enquirer.

We do not know to whom belongs this nom de plume, but he is certainly a humorist of no common power.—Providence Journal.

Poetical Works of Fitz-Greene Halleck. New

and only Complete Edition, containing several New Poems, together with many now first collected. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 00.

Halleck is one of the brightest stars in our American literature, and his name is like a household word wherever the English language is spoken.—Albany Express.

There are few poems to be found, in any language, that surpass, in beauty of thought and structure, some of these.—Boston Commonwealth.

To the numerous admirers of Mr. Halleck this will be a welcome book; for it is a characteristic desire in human nature to have the productions of our favorite authors in an elegant and substantial form.—Christian Freeman.

Mr. Halleck never appeared in a better dress, and few poets ever deserved a better one.—Christian Intelligencer.

Simms' Poetical Works. Poems: Descriptive,

Dramatic, Legendary, and Contemplative. By WM. GILMORE SIMMS. With a portrait on steel. 2 vols., 12mo., cloth. Price $2 50.

CONTENTS: Norman Maurice; a Tragedy.—Atalantis; a Tale of the Sea.—Tales and Traditions of the South.—The City of the Silent.—Southern Passages and Pictures.—Historical and Dramatic Sketches.—Scripture Legends.—Francesca da Rimini, etc.

We are glad to see the poems of our best Southern author collected in two handsome volumes. Here we have embalmed in graphic and melodious verse the scenic wonders and charms of the South; and this feature of the work alone gives it a permanent and special value. None can read "Southern Passages and Pictures" without feeling that therein the poetic aspects, association, and sentiment of Southern life and scenery are vitally enshrined. "Norman Maurice" is a dramatic poem of peculiar scope and unusual interest; and "Atalantis," a poem upon which some of the author's finest powers of thought and expression are richly lavished. None of our poets offer so great a variety of style, or a more original choice of subjects. Boston Traveller.

His versification is fluent and mellifluous, yet not lacking in point of vigor when an energetic style is requisite to the subject.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

Lyra, and other Poems. By ALICE CAREY

1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price 75 cents.

Whether poetry be defined as the rhythmical creation of beauty, as passion or eloquence in harmonious numbers, or as thought and feeling manifested by processes of the imagination, Alice Carey is in incontestably and incomparably the first living American poetess—fresh, indigenous, national—rich beyond precedent in suitable and sensuous imagery—of the finest and highest qualities of feeling, and such powers of creation as the Almighty has seen fit to bestow but rarely or in far-separated countries.—Boston Transcript.

The genuine inspiration of poetic feeling, replete with tenderness and beauty, earnestness and truthful simplicity, and all the attributes of a powerful imagination and vivid fancy. We know of no superior to Miss Carey among the female authors of this country.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

"Lyra and other Poems," just published by Redfield, attracts everywhere, a remarkable degree of attention. A dozen of the leading journals, and many eminent critics, have pronounced the authoress the greatest poetess living.—New York Mirror.

The Poetical Works of W. H. C. Hosmer.

Now first collected. With a Portrait on steel. 2 vols., 12mo. Price $2 00.

Imagination, poetic spirit, and diction, are patent in these polished compositions. The first volume is chiefly devoted to the legendary lore of Indian tradition, and abounds in picturesque descriptions of Nature's wildest scenery. Occasional poetic effusions, evoked by some incident of the hour, or suggested by the teeming travail of a glowing imagination, make up the second volume. The work constitutes a body of lyrics, and of rich specimens of almost every metre in English poesy.—National Intelligencer.

The poems designed to perpetuate the traditions of the Indian race particularly, are of a high order, the subject being evidently suited to the author's peculiar genius. Some of the "Bird Notes" also are exquisitely beautiful, and so too are many of the Miscellaneous pieces. The volumes are highly creditable to the author and to the country.—Puritan Recorder.

He has certainly written a great deal of agreeable and flowing verse, abounding in smooth descriptions of nature, and illustrated by apt and pleasing imagery.—N. Y. Tribune.

Scottish Songs, Ballads, and Poems. By HEW

AINSLIE, author of "The Ingleside," "On with the Tartan," "Rover of Loch-Ryan," &c. &c. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 00.

HISTORY AND BIOGRAPHY.

Ancient Egypt under the Pharaohs. By

JOHN KENRICK, M. A. In 2 vols., 12mo. Price $2 50.

No work has heretofore appeared suited to the wants of the historical student, which combined the labors of artists, travellers, interpreters, and critics, during the periods from the earliest records of the monarchy to its final absorption in the empire of Alexander. This work supplies this deficiency.—Olive Branch.

Not only the geography and political history of Egypt under the Pharaohs are given, but we are furnished with a minute account of the domestic manners and customs of the inhabitants, their language, laws, science, religion, agriculture, navigation, and commerce.—Commercial Advertiser.

These volumes present a comprehensive view of the results of the combined labors of travellers, artists, and scientific explorers, which have effected so much during the present century toward the development of Egyptian archæology and history.—Journal of Commerce.

The descriptions are very vivid, and one wanders, delighted with the author, through the land of Egypt, gathering at every step new phases of her wondrous history, and ends with a more intelligent knowledge than he ever before had, of the land of the Pharaohs.—American Spectator.

Newman's Regal Rome. An Introduction to

Roman History. By FRANCIS W. NEWMAN, Professor of Latin in the University College, London. 12mo., cloth. Price 63 cents.

The book, though small in compass, is evidently the work of great research and reflection, and is a valuable acquisition to historical literature.—Courier and Enquirer.

A work of great erudition and power, vividly reproducing the wonderful era of Roman history under the kings. We greet it as a work of profound scholarship, genial art, and eminent interest—a work that will attract the scholar, and please the general reader.—N. Y. Evangelist.

Nearly all the histories in the schools should be banished, and such as this should take their places.—Boston Journal.

Professor Newman's work will be found full of interest, from the light it throws on the formation of the language, the races, and the history of ancient Rome.—Wall-Street Journal.

The Catacombs of Rome, as Illustrating the Church of the First Three Centuries. By the Right Rev. W. INGRAHAM KIP, D. D., Missionary Bishop of California. Author of "Christmas Holidays in Rome," "Early Conflicts of Christianity," &c., &c. With over 100 Illustrations. 12mo., cloth. Price 75 cents.

The evidence furnished by the Catacombs of the departure of the Romish Church from Primitive Christianity is complete and overwhelming. The work is exceedingly valuable.—Christian Intelligencer.

It is a valuable aid in the contest between primitive truth and modern innovations, and as such the author commends it to his brethren in the Church.—Rochester American.

We commend this book as one of the most fascinating and useful of volumes; full of information, imparted in a style which beguiles the reader, and makes his perusal of the book seem like a pleasant dream.—Zion's Herald.

The History of the Crusades. By JOSEPH FRANÇOIS MICHAUD. Translated by W. Robson. 3 vols., 12mo., maps. Price $3 75.

It is comprehensive and accurate in the detail of facts, methodical and lucid in arrangement, with a lively and flowing narrative.—Journal of Commerce.

We need not say that the work of Michaud has superseded all other histories of the Crusades. This history has long been the standard work with all who could read it in its original language. Another work on the same subject is as improbable as a new history of the "Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire."—Salem Freeman.

The ability, diligence, and faithfulness, with which Michaud has executed his great task, are undisputed; and it is to his well-filled volumes that the historical student must now resort for copious and authentic facts, and luminous views respecting this most romantic and wonderful period in the annals of the Old World.—Boston Daily Courier.

Napoleon in Exile; or, a Voice from St. Helena. Being the Opinions and Reflections of Napoleon, on the most important Events in his Life and Government, in his own words. By BARRY E. O'MEARA, his late Surgeon, with a portrait of Napoleon, after the celebrated picture of Delaroche, and a view of St. Helena, both beautifully engraved on steel. 2 vols., 12mo., cloth. Price $2 00.

Nothing can exceed the graphic truthfulness with which these volumes record the words and habits of Napoleon at St. Helena, and its pages are endowed with a charm far transcending that of romance.—Albany State Register.

Every one who desires to obtain a thorough knowledge of the character of Napoleon, should possess himself of this book of O'Meara's.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

It is something indeed to know Napoleon's opinion of the men and events of the thirty years preceding his fall, and his comments throw more light upon history than anything we have read.—Albany Express.

Jomini's Campaign of Waterloo. The Political and Military History of the Campaign of Waterloo, from the French of General Baron Jomini. By Lieut. S. V. BENET. U. S. Ordnance, with a Map. 12mo., clo. Price 75 cts.

Of great value, both for its historical merit and its acknowledged impartiality.—Christian Freeman, (Boston.)

It has long been regarded in Europe as a work of more than ordinary merit, while, to military men, his review of the tactics and manœuvres of the French Emperor, during the few days which preceded his final and most disastrous defeat, is considered as instructive as it is interesting.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

It is a standard authority, and illustrates a subject of permanent interest. With military students and historical inquirers it will be a favorite reference, and for the general reader it possesses great value and interest.—Boston Transcript.

It throws much light on often mooted points respecting Napoleon's military and political genius. The translation is one of much vigor.—Boston Commonwealth.

Napier's Peninsular War. History of the War in the Peninsula, and in the South of France, from the Year 1807 to 1814. By W. F. P. NAPIER, C. B., Colonel 43d Regiment, &c. Complete in 1 vol., 8vo. Price $2 50.

We believe the Literature of War has not received a more valuable augmentation this century than Colonel Napier's justly celebrated work. Though a gallant combatant in the field, he is an impartial Historian.—Trib.

Napier's History, in addition to its superior literary merits and truthfulness, presents strong claims upon the attention of all American citizens; because the author is a large-souled philanthropist, and an inflexible enemy to ecclesiastical tyranny and secular despots.—Post.

The excellency of Napier's History results from the writer's happy talent for impetuous, straight-forward, soul-stirring narrative and picturing forth of characters. The military manœuvre, march, and fiery onset, the whole whirlwind vicissitudes of the desperate fight, he describes with dramatic force.—Merchants' Magazine.

Discovery and Exploration of the Mississippi Valley. With the Original Narratives of Marquette, Allouez, Membré, Hennepin, and Anastase Douay. By JOHN GILMARY SHEA. With a fac-simile of the Original Map of Marquette. 1 vol., 8vo., cloth. Antique. Price $2 00.

We believe that this is altogether the most thorough work that has appeared on the subject to which it relates. It is the result of long-continued and diligent research, and no legitimate source of information has been left unexplored. The work combines the interest of romance with the authenticity of history.—Puritan Recorder.

Mr. Shea has rendered a service to the cause of historical literature worthy of all praise, by the excellent manner in which he has prepared this important publication for the press.—Boston Traveller.

Narrative of a Voyage to the Northwest

Coast of America, in the years 1811, '12, '13 and '14; or the First Settlement on the Pacific. By GABRIEL FRANCHERE. Translated and Edited by J. V. Huntington. 12mo., cloth. Plates. Price $1 00.

Of all the narratives of travel and adventure in our Northwestern wilderness, there is none that gives a more vivid and picturesque description of the events, or in which the personal adventures of the narrator are told with more boldness, yet, freer from all egotism, than in this unpretending work of Mr. Franchere. It is truly a fragment of our colonial history, saved from oblivion.—Philadelphia National Argus.

The great value of this work, as an authentic and decisive narrative of critical events, was strongly attested by Colonel Benton, in the great debate of 1846, on the Oregon boundary question. It is a pleasant narrative, simply told. Irving made much use of it in his Astoria.—Boston Atlas.

The De Foe-like simplicity of the style, its picturesque descriptions of personal adventure, and of the features of the countries traversed by the author, confer an interest on this narrative, apart from that which springs from its historical value.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Classic and Historic Portraits. By JAMES

BRUCE. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

A series of personal sketches of distinguished individuals of all ages, embracing pen and ink portraits of near sixty persons, from Sappho down to Madame de Stael. They show much research, and possess that interest which attaches to the private life of those whose names are known to fame.—New Haven Journal and Courier.

They are comprehensive, well written, and judicious, both in the selection of subjects and the manner of treating them.—Boston Atlas.

The author has painted in minute touches the characteristics of each, with various personal details, all interesting, and all calculated to furnish to the mind's eye a complete portraiture of the individual described.—Albany Knickerbocker.

The sketches are full and graphic, many authorities having evidently been consulted by the author in their preparation.—Boston Journal.

Ladies of the Covenant. Memoirs of Distinguished

Scottish Females, embracing the Period of the Covenant and the Persecution. By Rev. JAMES ANDERSON. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 25.

It is a record which, while it confers honor on the sex, will elevate the heart, and strengthen it to the better performance of every duty.—Religious (Va.) Herald.

It is a book of great attractiveness, having not only the freshness of novelty, but every element of historical interest.—Courier and Enquirer.

It is written with great spirit and a hearty sympathy, and abounds in incidents of more than a romantic interest; while the type of piety it discloses is the noblest and most elevated.—N. Y. Evangelist.

Men and Women of the Eighteenth Century.

By ARSENE HOUSSAYE. With beautifully engraved portraits of Louis XV. and Madame de Pompadour. 2 vols., 12mo., 450 pages each, extra superfine paper. Price $2 50.

CONTENTS.—Dufresny, Fontenelle, Marivaux, Piron, The Abbé Prevost, Gentil-Bernard, Florian, Boufflers, Diderot, Grétry, Riverol, Louis XV., Greuze, Boucher, The Vanloos, Lantara, Watteau, La Motte, Dehle, Abbé Trublet, Buffon, Dorat, Cardinal de Bernis, Crébillon the Gay, Marie Antoinette, Made. de Pompadour, Vadé, Mlle. Camargo, Mlle. Clairon, Mad. de la Popelinière, Sophie Arnould, Crébillon the Tragic, Mlle. Guinard, Three Pages in the Life of Dancourt, A Promenade in the Palais-Royal, the Chevalier de la Clos.

A more fascinating book than this rarely issues from the teeming press. Fascinating in its subject; fascinating in its style; fascinating in its power to lead the reader into castle-building of the most gorgeous and bewitching description.—Courier and Enquirer.

This is a most welcome book, full of information and amusement, in the form of memoirs, comments, and anecdotes. It has the style of light literature, with the usefulness of the gravest. It should be in every library, and the hands of every reader.—Boston Commonwealth.

A BOOK OF BOOKS.—Two deliciously spiey volumes, that are a perfect bonne bouche for an epicure in reading.—Home Journal.

Philosophers and Actresses. By ARSENE HOUSSAYE. With beautifully-engraved Portraits of Voltaire and Mad. Parabère. 2 vols., 12mo. Price $2 50.

We have here the most charming book we have read these many days,—so powerful in its fascination that we have been held for hours from our imperious labors, or needful slumbers, by the entrancing influence of its pages. One of the most desirable fruits of the prolific field of literature of the present season.—Portland Eclectic.

Two brilliant and fascinating—we had almost said, bewitching—volumes, combining information and amusement the lightest gossip, with solid and serviceable wisdom.—Yankee Blade.

It is a most admirable book, full of originality, wit, information and philosophy. Indeed, the vividness of the book is extraordinary. The scenes and descriptions are absolutely life-like.—Southern Literary Gazette.

The works of the present writer are the only ones the spirit of whose rhetoric does justice to those times, and in fascination of description and style equal the fascinations they descant upon.—New Orleans Commercial Bulletin.

The author is a brilliant writer, and serves up his sketches in a sparkling manner.—Christian Freeman.

We are somewhat at a loss in what terms to speak of this book. Its style is fascinating, its matter always interesting, and almost always instructing.—Courier and Enquirer.

Sketches of the Irish Bar. By the Right

HON. RICHARD LALOR SHEIL, M. P. Edited, with a Memoir and Notes, by DR. SHELTON MACKENZIE. Fourth Edition. In 2 volumes. Price $2 00.

They attracted universal attention by their brilliant and pointed style, and their liberality of sentiment. The Notes embody a great amount of biographical information, literary gossip, legal and political anecdote, and amusing reminiscences, and, in fact, omit nothing that is essential to the perfect elucidation of the text.—New York Tribune.

They are the best edited books we have met for many a year. They form, with Mackenzie's notes, a complete biographical dictionary, containing succinct and clever sketches of all the famous people of England, and particularly of Ireland, to whom the slightest allusions are made in the text.—The Citizen (John Mitchel).

Dr. Mackenzie deserves the thanks of men of letters, particularly of Irishmen, for his research and care. Altogether, the work is one we can recommend in the highest terms.—Philadelphia City Item.

Barrington's Sketches. Personal Sketches

of his own Time. By SIR JONAH BARRINGTON, Judge of the High Court of Admiralty in Ireland: with Illustrations by Darley. Third Edition. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

A more entertaining book than this is not often thrown in our way. His sketches of character are inimitable; and many of the prominent men of his time are hit off in the most striking and graceful outline.—Albany Argus.

He was a very shrewd observer and eccentric writer, and his narrative of his own life, and sketches of society in Ireland during his times, are exceedingly humorous and interesting.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

It is one of those works which are conceived and written in so hearty a view, and brings before the reader so many palpable and amusing characters, that the entertainment and information are equally balanced.—Boston Transcript.

It portrays in life-like colors the characters and daily habits of nearly all the English and Irish celebrities of that period.—N. Y. Courier & Enquirer.

Moore's Life of Sheridan. Memoirs of the Life of the Rt. Hon. Richard Brinsley Sheridan. By THOMAS MOORE: with Portrait after Sir Joshua Reynolds. 2 vols., 12mo., cloth. Price $2 00.

One of the most brilliant biographies in English literature. It is the life of a wit written by a wit, and few of Tom Moore's most sparkling poems are more brilliant and fascinating than this biography.—Boston Transcript.

This is at once a most valuable biography of the most celebrated wit of the times, and one of the most entertaining works of its gifted author.—Springfield Republican.

The life of Sheridan, the wit, contains as much food for serious thought as the best sermon that was ever penned.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

The sketch of such a character and career as Sheridan's by such a hand as Moore's, can never cease to be attractive.—N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.

The work is instructive and full of interest.—Christian Intelligencer.

Men of the Time, or Sketches of Living Notables,—Authors, Architects, Artists, Composers, Demagogues, Divines, Dramatists, Engineers, Journalists, Ministers, Monarchs, Novelists, Politicians, Poets, Philanthropists, Preachers, Savans, Statesmen, Travellers, Voyagers, Warriors. 1 vol., 12mo. Containing nearly Nine Hundred Biographical Sketches. Price $1 50.

I am glad to learn that you are publishing this work. It is precisely that kind of information that every public and intelligent man desires to see, especially in reference to the distinguished men of Europe, but which I have found it extremely difficult to obtain—Extract from a Letter of the President of the United States to the publisher.

In its practical usefulness this work will supply a most important desideratum.—Courier and Enquirer.

It forms a valuable manual for reference, especially in the American department, which we cannot well do without; we commend it to the attention of our "reading public."—Tribune.

Lorenzo Benoni ; or, Passages in the Life of an Italian. Edited by a Friend. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 00.

The author of the volume is Giovanni Ruffini, a native of Genoa. Being implicated in the attempt at revolution in 1833, he was compelled to seek safety in flight, and has since that period resided in England and France. Under fictitious names he gives an authentic history of real characters and true incidents. It is a graphic picture of Italian life and habits; and a true, though mournful exhibition of the baneful effects of despotic rule, and priestly control in education—Norfolk (Va.) Herald.

From the first page to the last, it absorbs the reader's faculties with the intensity of its interest, and leaves him little consciousness outside the circle in which its characters have their being. Yet over the whole work there broods such a terrible shadow of despotism and the suffering it has caused, that its fascination is of a strange and painful kind.—N. Y. Daily Times.

This is one of the books occasionally met with, having a species of Tarantella power, charming the reader, and admitting of no cessation in its perusal, until the volume is entirely completed, leaving him even then like little Oliver, "asking for more."—Evening Post.

The Workingman's Way in the World. Being the Autobiography of a Journeyman Printer. By CHAS. MANBY SMITH, author of "Curiosities of London Life." 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

Written by a man of genius and of most extraordinary powers of description.—Boston Traveller.

It will be read with no small degree of interest by the professional brethren of the author, as well as by all who find attractions in a well-told tale of a workingman.—Boston Atlas.

An amusing as well as instructive book, telling how humble obscurity cuts its way through the world with energy, perseverance, and integrity.—Albany Knickerbocker.

The History of Louisiana—Spanish Domination. By CHARLES GAYARRE. 8vo., cloth. Price $2 50.

The History of Louisiana—French Domination. By CHARLES GAYARRE. 2 vols., 8vo., cloth. Price $3 50.

Mr. Gayarré has that feeling for his subject which an actual participation in his topic may be supposed to promote in a generous mind—for he has borne the office of Secretary of the State, and only failed from the accident of ill health to be its representative in the United States Senate. * * * His selection of material is picturesque, and to the point. He sees in the early annals of conquest and settlement what the true historian must discover of state causes and consequences, and of individual character. He presents us with a continuous map of events, and what is of no little importance, breaks down for the mass of the people the barrier which has hitherto separated them from any knowledge or sympathy with the persevering colonists of the South West. This book must be widely read. It is one of the most attractive volumes of late issued from the press.—Literary World.

Las Casas' Napoleon. Memoirs of the Life, Exile, and Conversations of the Emperor Napoleon. By the Count LAS CASAS. With Portraits on steel, Wood-cuts, &c. 4 vols., 12mo., cloth, $4 00. Half calf or mor. ex. $8 00.

The work of Las Casas is of the highest interest. Like Mr. O'Meara's, it assumes the form of a Journal, but is more minute and regular. The author enjoyed more constant opportunities of gratifying our curiosity respecting the Emperor, from having the advantage of living in his household, and passing daily many hours in his society; either conversing with him, hearing him read, and comment on the works of various authors, or writing to his dictation. * * His book, too, wears the appearance of perfect accuracy.—Edinburgh Review.

Tom Moore's Suppressed Letters. Notes from the Letters of Thomas Moore to his Music Publisher, James Power, (the publication of which was suppressed in London) with an Introductory Letter from Thomas Crofton Croker, Esq., F. S. A. With four Engravings on steel. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 50.

The present work is intended to correct misapprehensions naturally arising from a perusal of the "Memoirs" of Moore by Lord John Russell. No one can hesitate to convict his Lordship of very gross breaches of historic truth, in the suppressions of portions of the letters he pretended to edit; his entire aim appearing to be the withholding of any thing in Moore's letters inconsistent with the opinion his Lordship wished the public to entertain of his author. The publication of these suppressed letters and fractions, will set right these misapprehensions. Here Moore is presented to the world under his own hand and seal.—Winchester Democrat.

Fifty Years in Both Hemispheres ; or, Reminiscences of a Merchant's Life. By VINCENT NOLTE. 12mo. Price $1 25. [Eighth Edition]

The following, being a few of the more prominent names introduced in the work, will show the nature and extent of personal and anecdotal interest exhibited in its pages :—

Aaron Burr ; General Jackson ; John Jacob Astor ; Stephen Girard ; La Fayette ; Audubon ; the Barings ; Robert Fulton ; David Parish ; Samuel Swartwout ; Lord Aberdeen ; Peter K. Wagner ; Napoleon ; Paul Delaroché ; Sir Francis Chantry ; Queen Victoria ; Horace Vernet ; Major General Scott ; Mr. Saul ; Lafitte ; John Quincy Adams ; Edward Livingston ; John R. Grymes ; Auguste Davezac ; General Moreau ; Gouverneur Morris ; J. J. Ouvrard ; Messrs. Hope & Co. ; General Claiborne ; Marshal Soult ; Chateaubriand ; Le Roy de Chaumont ; Duke of Wellington ; William M. Price ; P. C. Labouche ; Ingres ; Charles VI., of Spain ; Marshal Blucher ; Nicholas Biddle ; Manuel Godoy ; Villele ; Lord Eldon ; Emperor Alexander, etc. etc.

As a reflection of real life, a book stamped with a strong personal character, and filled with unique details of a large experience of private and public interest, we unhesitatingly call attention to it as one of the most note-worthy productions of the day.—New York Churchman.

It is a vivid chronicle of varied and remarkable experiences, and will serve to rectify the errors which too often pass among men as veritable history.—Evening Post.

The anecdotes, declamations, sentiments, descriptions, and whole tone of the book, are vivacious and genuine, and, making allowance for obvious prejudices, graphic and reliable. To the old it will be wonderfully suggestive, to the young curiously informing, and to both rich in entertainment.—Boston Atlas.

As an amusing narrative, it would be difficult to find its superior ; but the book has peculiar interest from the freedom with which the author shows up our American notoriety of the past forty years.—Courier.

Not the least interesting portion of the work, to us here, is the narration of Nolte's intercourse with our great men, and his piquant, and occasionally ill-natured notice of their faults and foibles.—N. Y. Herald.

The Life of P. T. Barnum, written by himself ; in which he narrates his early history as Clerk, Merchant, and Editor, and his later career as a Showman. With a Portrait on Steel, and numerous Illustrations, by Darley. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 25.

"In this work I have given, in every particular, the true and the only full account of my enterprises."—Preface.

Adopting "nothing extenuate" as his motto, he presents the authentic history of "Joice Heth," the "Fejee Mermaid," the "Woolly Horse," the "Herd of Buffaloes," and other Showman incidents, generally denounced as "HUMBUGS." while larger space is devoted to his connection with General Tom Thumb, and the Triumphal Musical Campaign of Jenny Lind. Incidents of travel, and interviews with the crowned heads and nobility of the Old World, and sketches and anecdotes in our own land ; the entire history of the engagement of the Swedish Nightingale, and the exact Receipts of each Concert ; the purchase and management of the American Museum ; life before and behind the scenes ; the Travelling Circus of earlier times, and its adventures ; the Travelling Menagerie of later date ; Agricultural Experiments ; Experience in Banking ; Rules for Business, and making a Fortune.

Life of the Honorable William H. Seward,
with Selections from his Works. Edited by GEORGE E. BAKER.
12mo. Cloth. Portrait. $1 00.

"The work presents, in a form well adapted for popular circulation and perusal, some of the most striking evidences of the genius and statesman-like ability of Mr. Seward. It is ornamented with a well engraved portrait of Senator Seward."—Boston Journal.

"In short, it embraces all that the general reader could desire in regard to the history of the great statesman of New York."—Christian Secretary, Hartford.

"All agree that Mr. Seward is a man of remarkable powers, and that the productions of his pen are generally highly honorable both to the intellect and the literature of the country. The present volume contains a very felicitous epitome of the history of his public career, and a selection of some of his best discourses, illustrative of his character both as a statesman and a scholar."—Puritan Recorder.

"To any person who wishes to know about William H. Seward, all that the public have a right to know, we recommend this book. It contains the cream of his speeches and the history of his life."—New Bedford Mercury.

A Memorial of Horatio Greenough, consisting of a Memoir, Selections from his Writings and Tributes to his Genius, by HENRY T. TUCKERMAN, author of "Sicily, a Pilgrimage," a "Month in England," &c. &c. 12mo. Cloth.
Price 75 cents.

VOYAGES AND TRAVELS.

A Tennessean Abroad ; or, Letters from Europe, Asia, and Africa. By RANDALL W. MCGAVOCK, A.M., L.L.B., Member of the Nashville Bar. 12mo., clo. Price $1 00.

The author visited nearly all the most interesting parts of Great Britain and of the Continent of Europe, also the Holy Land, of all which he gives elaborate and instructive descriptions.—Yankee Blade, Boston.

No one can read it without interest, or without receiving a decided addition to his stock of knowledge, touching the political and social condition of the countries through which the writer passed.—Springfield Republican.

A volume so fresh, spicy and piquant, will readily commend itself to all who are fond of useful information, when placed in an attractive garb.—Evening Gazette, Boston.

This is an interesting and gossiping series of letters from Europe, Africa, and Asia, sufficiently above the ordinary run of "travellers' books," to be both extraordinary and instructive.—Albany Express.

A Month in England. BY HENRY T. TUCKERMAN, author of "Sicily, a Pilgrimage," "The Optimist," &c. 12mo., cloth. Price 75 cents.

Commend us to this, for the pleasantest book on England we ever read, always excepting Macaulay's History.—Springfield Evening Post.

His sketches are complete pictures of the history and life of English literature ; condensed, yet full ; chaste, yet glowing with beauty.—New York Independent.

This is really a delightful book. The author is well known as an original and vigorous writer and keen observer.—Christian Freeman.

A lively, racy volume of travels, in which the author gives us his impressions of the castles, books, artists, authors, and other et cetera which came in his way.—Zion's Herald.

Mr. Tuckerman is one of the purest and most elegant writers that adorn American literature.—Knickerbocker, Albany.

Life in the Mission, the Camp, and the Zenana.

By MRS. COLIN MACKENZIE. 2 vols., 12mo., cloth. Pr. $2.00.

It is enlivened with countless pleasant anecdotes, and altogether is one of the most entertaining and valuable works of the kind that we have met with for many a day.—Boston Traveller.

A more charming production has not issued from the press for years, than this journal of Mrs. Mackenzie.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

She also gives us a clearer insight into the manners, position, climate, and way of life in general, in that distant land, than we have been able to obtain from any other work.—Christian Herald.

Her observations illustrative of the religious state of things, and of the progress of Missions in the East, will be found specially valuable. It is on the whole a fascinating work and withal is fitted to do good.—Puritan Recorder.

The Russian Shores of the Black Sea, with a Voyage down the Volga, and a Tour through the Country of the Cossacks. By LAURENCE OLIPHANT, author of "A Journey to Nepal." Fourth Edition. 12mo., cloth. Two maps and eighteen cuts. Price 75 cents.

This volume is illustrated by a number of wood cuts and by useful maps. It is a valuable contribution to our knowledge of Russia, and should be read by all who desire to be well informed.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

Mr. Oliphant is a fluent, easy, companionable writer, who tells us a great deal we want to know, without a particle either of pedantry or bombast. This neat little book, with its maps and illustrations, will prove a most acceptable informant to the general reader, and at the same time prove highly entertaining.—Boston Transcript.

Mr. Oliphant is an acute observer, a shrewd and intelligent man, a clear, vigorous and distinct writer, and his book embodies the best account of Southern Russia that has ever appeared. His account of Sebastopol will find many interested readers.—Boston Atlas.

A Year with the Turks; or, Sketches of Travel in the European and Asiatic Dominions of the Sultan. By WARRINGTON W. SMYTH, A. M. With a colored Ethnological Map of the Turkish Empire. Third edition. 12mo., cloth. Price 75 cents.

Wallachia, the Danube, and other places, now so prominent, are made familiar by the plain, easy style of our author, while a flood of light is shed upon the Turks as a people, their system of government, the policy of their rulers, and the whole internal arrangements of the Ottoman Empire.—Philadelphia National Argus.

We advise all those who wish for clear information with regard to the condition of the Empire, and the various races that make up the population, to get this book and read it.—Boston Commonwealth.

Russo-Turkish Campaigns of 1828 and 1829.

With a View of the Present State of Affairs in the East. By COLONEL CHESNEY, R. A., D. C. L., F. R. S., Author of the Expedition for the Survey of the Rivers Euphrates and Tigris. With an Appendix, containing the Diplomatic Correspondence of the Four Powers and the Secret Correspondence between the Russian and English Governments. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth; Maps. Price $1 00.

A condensed detail of facts, and the result of personal observation, it is replete with instructive matter: a record of one of the most striking events in modern history; a guide to the formation of correct judgment on the future. Good maps, and minute descriptions of the principal seats of the past and present war; a statistical account of the military resources of Turkey; its present state and prospects; its political and commercial value—occupy an interesting portion of the work, which we heartily recommend to the attention of our readers.—London Critic.

It fills up a vacant niche in the history of the times which seems to be required to give a proper understanding of the difficulties which have resulted in the present European war.—Springfield Post.

White, Red, and Black. Sketches of American Society, during the Visits of their Guests. By FRANCIS and THERESA PULSZKY. 2 vols., 12mo., cloth. Price $2 00.

Mr. Pulszky and his accomplished wife have produced an eminently candid and judicious book, which will be read with pleasure and profit on both sides of the Atlantic.—New York Daily Times.

The authors have here furnished a narrative of decided interest and value. They have given us a view of the Hungarian war, a description of the Hungarian passage to this country, and a sketch of Hungarian travels over the country.—Philadelphia Christian Chronicle.

Of all the recent books on America by foreign travellers, this is at once the most fair and the most correct.—Philadelphia Saturday Gazette.

Minnesota and its Resources ; to which are appended Camp-Fire Sketches, or Notes of a Trip from St. Paul to Pembina and Selkirk Settlements on the Red River of the North. By J. WESLEY BOND. With a New Map of the Territory, a View of St. Paul, and one of the Falls of St. Anthony. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

To the immigrant to the northwest, and to the tourist in search of pleasure, it is worthy of being commended for the valuable and interesting knowledge it contains.—Chicago Daily Tribune.

The work will surprise many, as it opens to us a new land, shows its vast resources, and treats its history with all the accuracy that could be acquired by diligent research and careful observation, during a three years' residence.—Boston Gazette.

It contains notices of the early history of the country, of its geographical features, its agricultural advantages, its manufactures, commerce, facilities for travelling, the character of its inhabitants—everything, indeed, to illustrate its resources and its prospects.—Puritan Recorder.

We have seen no work respecting the northwest of equal value to this.—Christian Intelligencer.

The Blackwater Chronicle : A Narrative of an Expedition into the Land of Canaan, in Randolph County, Virginia, a Country flowing with Wild Animals, such as Panthers, Bears, Wolves, Elk, Deer, Otter, Badger, &c., &c., with innumerable Trout, by Five Adventurous Gentlemen, without any Aid of Government, and solely by their Own Resources, in the Summer of 1851. By "THE CLERKE OF OXENFORDE." With Illustrations from Life by Strother. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

This is a handsomely-printed and beautifully-illustrated volume. Those who have a taste for field sports will be delighted with this cleverly-written narrative of the achievements and experiences of a hunting party in the hunting-grounds of the Old Dominion.—Savannah Daily News.

A queer, quaint, amusingly-written book, brimful of drollery and dare-devil humor. The work overflows with amusement, and has a vignette-tile, and other beautiful illustrations by Strother.—Yankee Blade.

Cosas de España. (Strange Things of Spain.)

Going to Madrid, via Barcelona. 12mo. $1 00.

"We commend this volume as a most charming one, written with elegance and ease, full of vivacity and wit, and describing the odd customs of quaint old Spain in the most spicy and delightful manner."—Boston Evening Telegraph.

"The history of the Spanish pig would not be unworthily placed with the famed essay of Elia. The volume is instructive, humorous, a model of style, in short, a most remarkable book, that will bear many readings. Anybody who knows what a good book is, we advise to buy this."—Newark Daily Advertiser.

"The author is a gay fellow, never out of spirits, no matter what may be the annoyances around him, and he compels his reader to enter with zest into all the scenes he describes. The volume is altogether a most agreeable one."—Philadelphia Evening Bulletin.

"This racy volume contains a series of pictures of Spanish life, painted by an artist whose pencil is both skilled and practised."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

"The author is of the rollicking school of travellers, and is a pleasant companion. He has a charm in his method of handling his subjects which cannot fail to fascinate his readers."—Louisville Journal.

Sicily, a Pilgrimage, by Henry T. Tuckerman, author of "A Month in England," &c. &c. 12mo. Cloth, 75 cents.

"A clever description of a country less frequented by travelers than many other parts of Europe."—Journal of Commerce.

"It is an interesting book, from one of the most finished and graceful writers of the day, who throws a charm round everything he touches, by the beauty of his style, and the reflections of a well-balanced and cultivated mind. It is deserving of and will receive the attention of the public."—Newburyport Union.

"To thousands of readers Mr. Tuckerman's 'Pilgrimage' has disclosed an unknown land, and has, no doubt, led thither many a curious and thankful traveler. Susceptibility to the beauties of nature and art, liberal learning, fellow-feeling for man, in all the phases of his struggles, his glory, his suffering; these are the endowments that qualify the author of this modest little book to perform the part undertaken in it. A simple love story, which enlists the sympathy without tantalizing the reader, binds the chapters together as with a thread of gold, and exhibits the purity of taste and the refinement of the author."—Post.

SCIENCE AND ART.

Griscom on Ventilation. The Uses and Abuses of Air ; showing its Influence in Sustaining Life, and Producing Disease, with remarks on the Ventilation of Houses, and the best Methods of Securing a Pure and Wholesome Atmosphere inside of Dwellings, Churches, Workshops, &c. By JOHN H. GRISCOM, M. D. 1 vol., 12mo. 75 cts.

This comprehensive treatise should be read by all who wish to secure health, and especially by those constructing churches, lecture-rooms, school-houses, etc. It is undoubted, that many diseases are created and spread in consequence of the little attention paid to proper ventilation. Dr. G. writes knowingly and plainly upon this all-important topic.—Newark Adv.

When shall we learn to estimate, at their proper value, pure water and pure air, which God provided for man before he made man, and a very long time before he permitted the existence of a doctor? We commend the Uses and Abuses of Air to our readers, assuring them that they will find it to contain directions for the ventilation of dwellings, which every one who values health and comfort should put in practice.—N. Y. Dispatch.

Bronchitis, and Kindred Diseases. In language adapted to common readers. By W. W. HALL, M. D. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 00.

It is written in a plain, direct, common-sense style, and is free from the quackery which marks many of the popular medical books of the day. It will prove useful to those who need it.—Central Ch. Herald.

Those who are clergymen, or who are preparing for the sacred calling, and public speakers generally, should not fail of securing this work.—Christian Ambassador.

It is full of hints on the nature of the vital organs, and does away with much superstitious dread in regard to consumption.—Greene County Whig.

Comparative Physiognomy ; or, Resemblances between Men and Animals. By J. W. REDFIELD, M. D. 1 vol., 8vo., with several hundred illustrations. Price $2 00.

Dr. Redfield has produced a very curious, amusing, and instructive book, curious in its originality and illustrations, amusing in the comparisons and analyses, and instructive because it contains very much useful information on a too much neglected subject.—National Ægis.

The whole work exhibits a good deal of scientific research, intelligent observation, and ingenuity.—Daily Union.

Highly entertaining, even to those who have little time to study the science.—Detroit Daily Advertiser.

This is a remarkable volume, and will be read by two classes—those who study for information, and those who read for amusement. For its originality and entertaining character we commend it to our readers.—Albany Express.

Episodes of Insect Life. By ACHETA DOMESTICA. In three Series:—1. Insects of Spring.—2. Insects of Summer.—3. Insects of Autumn. Beautifully illustrated. Crown 8vo., cloth, gilt, $2 00 each. The same beautifully colored after Nature, extra gilt, $4 00 each.

A book elegant enough for the centre-table, witty enough for after dinner, and wise enough for the study and the school-room. One of the beautiful lessons of this work is the kindly view it takes of nature. Nothing is made in vain not only, but nothing is made ugly or repulsive. A charm is thrown around every object, and life suffused through all, suggestive of the Creator's goodness and wisdom.—N. Y. Evangelist.

Moths, glow-worms, lady-birds, May-flies, Bees, and a variety of other inhabitants of the insect world, are descanted upon in a pleasing style, combining scientific information with romance, in a manner peculiarly attractive.—Commercial Advertiser.

Narratives of Sorcery and Magic, from the most Authentic Sources. By THOMAS WRIGHT, A. M., &c. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 25.

We have no hesitation in pronouncing this one of the most interesting works which has for a long time issued from the press.—Albany Express.

The narratives are intensely interesting, and the more so, as they are evidently written by a man whose object is simply to tell the truth, and who is not himself bewitched by any favorite theory.—N. Y. Recorder.

The Night-Side of Nature; or, Ghosts and Ghost-Seers. By CATHARINE CROWE. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 00.

In this remarkable work Miss Crowe, who writes with the vigor and grace of a woman of strong sense and high cultivation, collects the most remarkable and best authenticated accounts, traditional and recorded, of preternatural visitations and appearances.—Boston Transcript.

An almost unlimited fund of interesting illustrations and anecdotes touching the spiritual world.—New Orleans Bee.

Art and Industry, as represented in the Exhibition at the Crystal Palace, New York. Showing the Progress and State of the various Useful and Esthetic Pursuits. From the New York Tribune. Revised and Edited by HORACE GREELEY. 12mo., cloth. Fine paper, $1 00. Paper covers, 50 cents.

The articles comprised in this work are thirty-six in number, on various subjects; they are elaborately and vigorously written, and contain much desirable information.—Savannah Republican.

It will be read extensively and with interest by all who are engaged in any department of the useful or graceful arts.—Lowell Journal and Courier.

Everybody interested in the state of American art or industry should have a copy.—Register, (Philad.)

Evidently written with a great deal of care, and presents in a small compass a very large amount of information, in relation to the latest improvements in science and art.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

Chapman's American Drawing-Book. The

American Drawing-Book, intended for Schools, Academies, and Self-Instruction. By JOHN G. CHAPMAN, N. A. Three Parts now published. Price 50 cents each.

But so clearly are its principles developed in the beautiful letter-press, and so exquisitely are they illustrated by the engravings, that the pupil's way is opened most invitingly to a thorough knowledge of both the elements and application.—Home Journal.

The engravings are superb, and the typography unsurpassed by any book with which we are acquainted. It is an honor to the author and publisher, and a credit to our common country.—Scientific American.

This work is so distinct and progressive in its instructions, that we can not well see how it could fail to impart a full and complete knowledge of the art. Nothing can vie with it in artistic and mechanical execution.—Knickerbocker Magazine.

The History and Poetry of Finger Rings

By CHARLES EDWARDS, Esq., Counsellor at Law. With Illustrations, 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

"A publication even more unique in its text than peculiar in its title. It is issued in beautiful style, displays a remarkable industry in exploring so novel a field of research, and contains much that is both curious and interesting."—Boston Atlas.

"It is remarkable how much authentic history, antiquarian lore, pleasant anecdote, and true poetry may be drawn through a ring. The author writes con amore, and has given us one of the pleasantest and most useful books of the season."—Arthur's Home Gazette.

"The book is richly interspersed with anecdotes, and is certainly one of the most noticeable publications of the day for novelty and interest."—Boston Journal.

BELLES-LETTRES.

---

[William Gilmore Simms.]

Revolutionary Tales—new and Revised Editions—with Illustrations by Darley.

The Partisan ; A Romance of the Revolution.
12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

Mellichampe ; A Legend of the Santee.
12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

Katherine Walton ; or, The Rebel of Dorchester. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

The Scout ; or, The Black Riders of the Congaree. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

Woodcraft ; or, The Hawks about the Dovecote. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

Eutaw ; A New Revolutionary Romance.
In press. Price $1 25.

The Yemassee ; A Romance of South Carolina. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

Southward, Ho ! a Spell of Sunshine. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

The field of Revolutionary Romance was a rich one, and Mr. Simms has worked it admirably.—Louisville Journal.

But few novelists of the age evince more power in the conception of a story, more artistic skill in its management, or more naturalness in the final denouement than Mr. Simms.—Mobile Daily Advertiser.

Not only par excellence the literary man of the South, but next to no romance writer in America.—Albany Knickerbocker.

Simms is a popular writer, and his romances are highly creditable to American literature.—Boston Olive Branch.

These books are replete with daring and thrilling adventures, principally drawn from history.—Boston Christian Freeman.

We take pleasure in noticing another of the series which Redfield is presenting to the country of the brilliant productions of one of the very ablest of our American authors—of one indeed who, in his peculiar sphere, is inimitable.—Philadelphia American Courier.

[Robert Montgomery Bird.]

Calavar; The Knight of the Conquest. A

Romance of Mexico. By the late DR. ROBERT MONTGOMERY BIRD, author of "Nick of the Woods;" with Illustrations by Darley. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

The romantic incidents of that renowned conquest, when Spanish rule gained a steadfast footing upon the northern half of this continent, have furnished the materials of a fiction bordering closely upon the accuracy of history.—Philadelphia Register.

So correctly does this work follow facts in describing the events of that campaign, that Mr. Prescott gives it special attention in his History of Mexico.—Christian Freeman, Boston.

It is historical, well-written, pure in sentiment, and instructive, as well as interesting.—Christian Intelligencer.

There is a remarkable parallel between the invasions of CORTEZ and SCOTT. Calavar contains the romance as well as the history of the former, and deserves perusal on this account alone.—Missouri Republican.

Nick of the Woods, or the Jibbenainosay;

A Tale of Kentucky. By ROBERT M. BIRD, M. D., author of "Calavar," "The Infidel," &c. New and revised edition, with Illustrations by Darley. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

One of those singular tales which impress themselves in ineradicable characters upon the memory of every imaginative reader.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

Notwithstanding it takes the form of a novel, it is understood to be substantial truth in the dress of fiction; and nothing is related but which has its prototype in actual reality.—Albany Argus.

It is a tale of frontier life and Indian warfare, written by a masterly pen, with its scenes so graphically depicted that they amount to a well-executed painting, at once striking and thrilling.—Buffalo Express.

The Works of Edgar Allan Poe; complete in three volumes, with a Portrait, a Memoir by James Russell Lowell, and an Introductory Essay by N. P. Willis; edited by Rufus W. Griswold. 12mo. Price $3 50.

We need not say that these volumes will be found rich in intellectual excitements, and abounding in remarkable specimens of vigorous, beautiful, and highly suggestive composition; they are all that remain to us of a man whose uncommon genius it would be folly to deny.—N. Y. Tribune.

Mr. Poe's intellectual character—his genius—is stamped upon all his productions, and we shall place these his works in the library among those books not to be parted with.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

These productions will live. They bear the stamp of true genius; and if their reputation begins with a "fit audience though few," the circle will be constantly widening, and they will retain a prominent place in our literature.—Rev. Dr. Kip.

The Noctes Ambrosianae. By Prof. WILSON, J. G. LOCKHART, JAMES HOGG, and DR. MAGINN. Edited, with Memoirs and Notes, by Dr. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE. In 5 volumes. Price $5 00.

CONTENTS:—Vol. I. Portrait of Prof. Wilson, engraved on steel; History of Blackwood's Magazine; Christopher in the Tent; The Chaldee Manuscript; and Noctes, from August, 1819, to August, 1824.

Vol. II. Engraved fac-simile of a manuscript page of the Noctes in Wilson's handwriting; a Memoir of Prof. Wilson; and Noctes from November, 1824, to July, 1827.

Vol. III. Portrait and Memoir of Lockhart; Noctes from January, 1828, to April, 1830.

Vol. IV. Portrait and Memoir of Hogg; Noctes from May, 1830, to November, 1831.

Vol. V. Portrait and Memoir of Dr. Maginn; Noctes from February, 1832, to February, 1835; with a copious Index to the whole work, embracing over three thousand references to subjects.

They are unlike anything else in our language, and he must be dull and apathetic indeed who cannot enjoy their strong vitality and unfailing flood of geniality and wit.—Boston Transcript.

Whoso shall have studied these volumes, will have made himself conversant with the whole stream of polite learning since the beginning of Walter Scott's splendid literary career.—Richmond Examiner.

That series of papers which fascinated the readers of Blackwood for years, and which have subsequently spread their charm over the whole literary world, until they are almost without a parallel for popularity.—Raleigh Post.

This is the first thorough edition of the famous Noctes that has ever appeared, and it is not likely to be soon superseded by another.—Bos. Times.

The Odoherly Papers; forming the first portion of the Miscellaneous Writings of the late DR. MAGINN. With an Original Memoir and copious Notes, by Dr. R. SHELTON MACKENZIE, 2 vols. $2 00.

For more than a quarter of a century, the most remarkable magazine writer of his time was the late William Maginn, LL.D., well known as the Sir Morgan Odoherly of "Blackwood's Magazine," and as the principal contributor, for many years, to Fraser's and other periodicals. The combined learning, wit, eloquence, eccentricity, and humor of Maginn, had obtained for him (long before his death, in 1843) the title of the Modern Rabelais. His magazine articles possess extraordinary merit. He had the art of putting a vast quantity of animal spirits upon paper, but his graver articles—which contain sound and serious principles of criticism—are earnest and well reasoned.

The collections now in hand will contain his Facetiæ, (in a variety of languages). Translations, Travesties, and Original Poetry; also his Prose Tales, which are eminently beautiful; the best of his Critical Articles, (including his celebrated Shakespeare Papers,) and his Homeric Ballads. The periodicals in which he wrote have been ransacked, from "Blackwood" to "Punch," and the result will be a series of great interest.

Dr. Shelton Mackenzie, who has undertaken the editorship of these writings of his distinguished countryman, will spare neither labor nor attention in the work. The first volume will contain an Original Memoir of Dr. Maginn, written by Dr. Mackenzie, and a characteristic portrait, with fac-simile.

Vasconselos : A Romance of the New World.

By FRANK COOPER. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

The scenes are laid in Spain and the New World, and the skill with which the pomp and circumstance of chivalry are presented, make Vasconselos one of the most interesting works of American fiction.—Eve. Post.

It is well written, full of spirit, interesting historical facts, beautiful local descriptions, and well-sustained characters. Cuban associations abound in it, and there is a fine southern glow over the whole.—Boston Transcript.

It is freely written, full of sparkle and freshness, and must interest any one whose appreciation is at all vigorous.—Buffalo Express.

The story is an interesting one, while the style is most refreshingly good for these days of easy writing.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

This is an American romance, and to such as are fond of this order of literature, it will be found intensely interesting.—Hartford Chris. Secretary.

A Stray Yankee in Texas. By PHILIP PAXTON. With Illustrations by Darley. Second Edition. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

The work is a chef d'œuvre in a style of literature in which our country has no rival, and we commend it to all who are afflicted with the blues or ennui, as an effectual means of tickling their diaphragms, and giving their cheeks a holyday.—Boston Yankee Blade.

We find, on a perusal of it, that Mr. Paxton has not only produced a readable, but a valuable book, as regards reliable information on Texan affairs.—Hartford Christian Secretary.

The book is strange, wild, humorous, and yet truthful. It will be found admirably descriptive of a state of society which is fast losing its distinctive peculiarities in the rapid increase of population.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

One of the richest, most entertaining, and, at the same time, instructive works one could well desire.—Syracuse Daily Journal.

The book is a perfect picture of western manners and Texan adventures, and will occasion many a hearty laugh in the reader.—Alb. State Register.

The Wonderful Adventures of Capt. Priest.

By PHILIP PAXTON. 12mo., Cloth. $1 00.

Western Characters ; being Types of Border Life in the Western States. By J. L. M'CONNEL, author of "Talbot and Vernon," "The Glens," &c. &c. With Six Illustrations by Darley. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

Ten different classes are sketched in this admirable book, and written by the hand of a master. The author is an expert limner, and makes his portraits striking.—Buffalo Express.

Never has Darley's pencil been more effectively used. The writer and sketcher have made a unique and most attractive American book.—Boston Transcript.

When we say that the book before us is calm in style as it is forcible in matter, we have indicated a sufficiency of good qualities to secure the attention of the reader, who would extend his sympathies and secure himself a due degree of amusement, without—what is not uncommon in books with similar titles—a shock to his taste, or insult to his judgment. There is nothing equal to them in the book illustrations of the day. A special paragraph should be given to the illustrations by Darley.—Literary World.

[Henry Wm. Herbert.]

The Cavaliers of England; or, The Times of the Revolutions of 1642 and 1688. By HENRY WILLIAM HERBERT. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 25.

They are graphic stories, and in the highest degree attractive to the imagination as well as instructive, and cannot fail to be popular.—Commercial.

These tales are written in the popular author's best style, and give us a vivid and thrilling idea of the customs and influences of the chivalrous age.—Christian Freeman.

His narrative is always full of great interest; his descriptive powers are of an uncommon order; the romance of history loses nothing at his hands; he paints with the power, vigor, and effect of a master.—The Times.

They bring the past days of old England vividly before the reader, and impress upon the mind with indelible force, the living images of the puritans as well as the cavaliers, whose earnest character and noble deeds lend such a lively interest to the legends of the times in which they lived and fought, loved and hated, prayed and revelled.—Newark Daily.

Knights of England, France, and Scotland.

By HENRY WILLIAM HERBERT. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 25.

They are partly the romance of history and partly fiction, forming, when blended, portraiture, valuable from the correct drawing of the times they illustrate, and interesting from their romance.—Albany Knickerbocker.

They are spirit-stirring productions, which will be read and admired by all who are pleased with historical tales written in a vigorous, bold, and dashing style.—Boston Journal.

These legends of love and chivalry contain some of the finest tales which the graphic and powerful pen of Herbert has yet given to the lighter literature of the day.—Detroit Free Press.

The Chevaliers of France, from the Crusaders to the Mareschals of Louis XIV. By HENRY WILLIAM HERBERT, author of "The Cavaliers of England," "Cromwell," "The Brothers," &c., &c. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 25.

Mr. Herbert is one of the best writers of historical tales and legends in this or any other country.—Christian Freeman.

This is a work of great power of thought and vividness of picturing. It is a moving panorama of the inner life of the French empire in the days of chivalry.—Albany Spectator.

The series of works by this author, illustrative of the romance of history, is deservedly popular. They serve, indeed, to impart and impress on the mind a great deal of valuable information; for the facts of history are impartially exhibited, and the fiction presents a vivid picture of the manners and sentiment of the times.—Journal of Commerce.

The work contains four historical tales or novelettes, marked by that vigor of style and beauty of description which have found so many admirers among the readers of the author's numerous romances.—Lowell Journal.

Marmaduke Wyvil ; An Historical Romance

of 1651. By HENRY WILLIAM HERBERT, author of the "Cavaliers of England," &c. &c. Fourteenth Edition. Revised and corrected. Price $1 25.

This is one of the best works of the kind we have ever read—full of thrilling incidents and adventures in the stirring times of Cromwell, and in that style which has made the works of Mr. Herbert so popular.—Christian Freeman, Boston.

The work is distinguished by the same historical knowledge, thrilling incident, and pictorial beauty of style, which have characterized all Mr. Herbert's fictions, and imparted to them such a bewitching interest.—Yankee Blade.

The author, out of a simple plot and very few characters, has constructed a novel of deep interest and of considerable historical value. It will be found well worth reading.—National Ægis, Worcester.

[J. V. Huntington.]

The Forest. By J. V. HUNTINGTON, author

of "Lady Alice," "Alban," &c. 1 vol., 12mo., second edition. Price $1 25.

The picture of American scenery is painted in bright and vivid colors. The characters are sketched with a nice hand. The sports, the adventures of an Indian hunting-ground, are put before the reader's mind with the sharp outlines, the humor, and the breadth of real life. . . . The incidents of the journey of this party through the wilderness,—the moral interest growing up like flowers, out of the commonest material facts,—are charmingly described.—London Athenæum.

"The Forest" is one of the finest pictures ever painted of an out-door life in the wild regions of this State; and we speak with a vivid memory of all that COOPER and HOFFMAN have done. Its delineations of individual character are hardly less admirable; and, although, as we have said, it has little plot, its interest is absorbing from beginning to end.—Cour. & Eng.

Woods, lakes, and waterfalls, the forest clearing, and the mountain wilderness, attract Mr. Huntington with the freshness and variety of a new inspiration, and his pen works with vigor and effect in the landscape painting of his story.—Literary World.

The descriptive powers evinced are extraordinary; and the dramatic tact and ability equal to the first writers.—N. Y. Evangelist.

Alban ; or, The History of a Young Puritan.

2 vols., 12mo., pp. 829., cloth. Price $2 00.

The story has many positive and distinguishing excellencies—a graceful style, a happy facility of description, and a healthy nationality of sentiment. Mr. Huntington allows himself to regard certain things without foreclosed judgment, and in an unhackneyed vein of feeling. Many of his pictures of American in-door life are charming and true; and they are none the less charming because very few of our writers have ventured to think an American fireside worthy of being faithfully studied and honestly described.—Whig Review.

It contains passages of powerful description and fine limning of character.—Home Journal,

[Day Kellogg Lee—Tales of Labor.]

Summerfield; or, Life on a Farm. 1 vol.,
12mo. Price $1 00.

We have read it with lively and satisfied interest. The scenes are natural, the characters homely and life-like, and the narrative replete with passages of the profoundest pathos, and incidents of almost painful interest. Above all, "Summerfield" is in the deepest sense religious, and calculated to exert a strong and wholesome moral influence on its readers, who we trust will be many.—Horace Greeley.

It aims to teach the lesson of contentment, and the rural picture which it draws, and the scenes of home happiness with which it makes us acquainted, are well calculated to enforce it.—Atlas.

There is a great deal of life and nature in the story, and in some of the scenes there is a rich display of wit.—Albany Argus.

It has a flavor of originality, and the descriptions are generally excellent; and, what is something of a peculiarity at present in writings of this kind, not overburdened with words.—Literary World.

The Master Builder; or, Life at a Trade.

1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 00.

He is a powerful and graphic writer, and from what we have seen in the pages of the "Master Builder," it is a romance of excellent aim and success.—State Register.

The "Master Builder" is the master production. It is romance into which is instilled the realities of life; and incentives are put forth to noble exertion and virtue. The story is pleasing—almost fascinating; the moral is pure and undefiled.—Daily Times.

Its descriptions are, many of them, strikingly beautiful; commingling in good proportions, the witty, the grotesque, the pathetic, and the heroic. It may be read with profit as well as pleasure.—Argus.

The work before us will commend itself to the masses, depicting as it does most graphically the struggles and privations which await the unknown and uncared-for Mechanic in his journey through life. It is what might be called a romance, but not of love, jealousy, and revenge order.—Lockport Courier.

Merrimack; or, Life at the Loom. 1 vol.,

12mo. Price $1 00.

A new volume of the series of popular stories which have already gained a well-deserved reputation for the author. As a picture of an important and unique phase of New England life, the work is very interesting, and can scarcely fail of popularity among the Million.—Harper's Magazine.

The work is extremely well written. It is as interesting as a novel, while it is natural as every-day life.—Boston Traveller.

"Merrimack" is a story which, by its simple pathos, and truthfulness to nature, will touch the heart of every reader. It is free from the least tinge of that odious stilted style of thought and diction characteristic of the majority of the novels with which the reading public are deluged.—N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

Another plain, straightforward, absorbing work from a pen which before has added riches to our literature, and honor to him who wielded it.—Buffalo Express.

[Caroline Chesebro'.]

Isa, a Pilgrimage. By CAROLINE CHESEBRO'.

1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

The Pilgrimage is fraught throughout with scenes of thrilling interest—romantic, yet possessing a naturalness that seems to stamp them as real: the style is flowing and easy, chaste and beautiful."—Troy Daily Times.

Miss Chesebro' is evidently a thinker—she skims not the mere surface of life, but plunges boldly into the hidden mysteries of the spirit, by which she is warranted in making her startling revelations of human passion.—Christian Freeman.

There comes out in this book the evidence of an inventive mind, a cultivated taste, an exquisite sensibility, and a deep knowledge of human nature.—Albany Argus.

It is a charming book, pervaded by a vein of pure ennobling thought.—Troy Whig.

There is no one who will doubt that this is a courageous and able work, displaying genius and depth of feeling, and striking at a high and noble aim.—N. Y. Evangelist.

There is a fine vein of tenderness running through the story, which is peculiarly one of passion and sentiment.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

The Children of Light. By CAROLINE CHESEBRO', author of "Isa, a Pilgrimage," "Dream-Land by Daylight," &c. &c. 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

It is truly an attractive gallery of portraits, vivid pictures of human beings wrought by human hands. The work is admirably conceived, and in every page bears the clear impress of Miss Chesebro's keen perceptions, her powerful and original intellect, and a depth of sentiment and feeling that are only developed and made useful by the highly gifted and the pure in heart.—Albany State Register.

To those of our readers who desire a good book—one for the most part not filled with the common trash of the times, and which is the production of "a perfect woman nobly planned"—we would recommend the "Children of Light."—N. Y. Truth-Teller.

The work is characterized by great boldness of thought, elegant diction, and vigorous tone.—Greene County Whig.

Dream-Land by Daylight: A Panorama of Romance. By CAROLINE CHESEBRO'. Illustrated by Darley. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 25:

These simple and beautiful stories are all highly endued with an exquisite perception of natural beauty, with which is combined an appreciative sense of its relation to the highest moral emotions.—Albany State Register.

Gladly do we greet this floweret in the field of our literature, for it is fragrant with sweet and bright with hues that mark it to be of Heaven's own planting.—Courier and Enquirer.

There is a depth of sentiment and feeling not ordinarily met with, and some of the noblest faculties and affections of man's nature are depicted and illustrated by the skilful pen of the authoress.—Churchman.

[Alice Carey.]

Clovernook ; or, Recollections of Our Neighborhood in the West. By ALICE CAREY. Illustrated by Darley. First and Second Series. Fourth Edition. 2 vols., 12mo. Price $2 00.

In this volume there is a freshness which perpetually charms the reader. You seem to be made free of western homes at once.—Old Colony Memorial.

They bear the true stamp of genius—simple, natural, truthful—and evince a keen sense of the humor and pathos, of the comedy and tragedy, of life in the country.—J. G. Whittier.

Hagar ; A Story of To-Day. By ALICE CAREY, author of "Clovernook," "Lyra, and Other Poems," &c. 1 vol., 12mo. Price $1 00.

A story of rural and domestic life, abounding in humor, pathos, and that naturalness in character and conduct which made "Clovernook" so great a favorite last season. Passages in "Hagar" are written with extraordinary power, its moral is striking and just, and the book will inevitably be one of the most popular productions of the season.

She has a fine, rich, and purely original genius. Her country stories are almost unequalled—Knickerbocker Magazine.

The Times speaks of Alice Carey as standing at the head of the living female writers of America. We go even farther in our favorable judgment, and express the opinion that among those living or dead, she has had no equal in this country ; and we know of few in the annals of English literature, who have exhibited superior gifts of real poetic genius.—The (Portland, Me.) Eclectic.

Cap-Sheaf, a Fresh Bundle. By LEWIS MYRTLE. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

If one wants a book to read when he goes home and sits down by his fire-side at night, wearied and careworn with the toils and buffetings of life, this is just the one for him.—Syracuse Daily Journal.

It is a book for a minute, an hour, or a day. Throughout its pages are distributed chaste and tender thoughts, glowing imagery, and high moral influences.—Philadelphia City Item.

There is a rich vein of simplicity, and naturalness, and true feeling, running through this volume. The author evidently carries a well-practised pen, and speaks from a gifted and well-furnished mind and a full heart.—Albany Argus.

In fact, it is a delightful book—hearty in tone and healthy in morality, and we bespeak for it the favor which its merits, wherever it goes, will be sure to command.—Temperance Courier.

This is a collection of light stories and graceful sketches, which must have proceeded from a warm and affectionate heart. The volume is earnestly commended to the perusal of the reader.—Lowell Journal and Courier.

The Youth of Jefferson ; or, A Chronicle of College Scrapes at Williamsburg, Va., 1764. Cloth, 75 cts.

The story is almost an extravaganza, and yet is of absorbing interest. Few of cultivated taste who take the volume up, will fail to read it through at a sitting. The originality of its construction, the correctness and easy flow of its style, and the reader's consciousness that he is enjoying, with the author himself, the gay moments of a learned, thoughtful, and observing man, make the book one of the most delightful of the day. Grotesque it is, but it reminds us of the grotesque drawings of Raffael, and has in it infinitely more of the truth and spirit of nature than nine-tenths of the myriad "Thrilling Tales from Real Life," which, with reptile-like fecundity, the press now spawns upon the public.—N. Y. Courier and Enquirer.

This book assumes to be based on some of Jefferson's letters, written from Williamsburg College, in or about the year 1764. It recounts some of the college pranks of Jefferson and a few of his fellow-students. It is really a delightful little volume, written in a dashing, brilliant style ; and it cannot possibly be read in an ill humor.—Christian Freeman.

This is a little volume, the title of which fully explains its contents. It is full of capital stories of student life, and rollicking, youthful experiences in the early days of the "Old Dominion." It is refreshing, at this season of the year, when books grow stale and readers apathetic, to take up a convenient sized tome and be obliged to laugh in spite of oneself.—Buf. Democracy.

Tales and Traditions of Hungary. By THERESA

PULSZKY. With a Portrait of the author. 1 vol. Price $1 25.

The above contains, in addition to the English publication, a NEW PREFACE, and TALES, now first printed from the manuscript of the author, who has a direct interest in the publication.

This work claims more attention than is ordinarily given to books of its class. Such is the fluency and correctness—nay, even the nicety and felicity of style—with which Madame Pulszky writes the English language, that merely in this respect the tales here collected form a curious study. But they contain also highly suggestive illustrations of national literature and character.—London Examiner.

Freshness of subject is invaluable in literature—Hungary is still fresh ground. It has been trodden, but it is not yet a common highway. The tales and legends are very various, from the mere traditional anecdote to the regular legend, and they have the sort of interest which all national traditions excite.—London Leader.

The Lion Skin and the Lover Hunt. By

CHARLES DE BERNARD. 12mo. Price $1 00.

It is not often the novel-reader can find on his bookseller's shelf a publication so full of incidents and good humor, and at the same time so provocative of honest thought.—National (Worcester, Mass.) Ægis.

It is full of incidents ; and the reader becomes so interested in the principal personages in the work, that he is unwilling to lay the book down until he has learned their whole history.—Boston Olive Branch.

It is refreshing to meet occasionally with a well-published story which is written for a story, and for nothing else—which is not tipped with the snapper of a moral, or loaded in the handle with a pound of philanthropy, or an equal quantity of leaden philosophy.—Springfield Republican.

The Pretty Plate ; A New and Beautiful Juvenile. By JOHN VINCENT. Illustrated by Darley. 1 vol., 16mo., cloth, gilt. Price 50 cents ; extra gilt edges, 75 cents.

We venture to say that no reader, great or small, who takes up this book, will lay it down unfinished.—Courier and Enquirer.

This is an elegant little volume for a juvenile gift-book. The story is one of peculiar instruction and interest to the young, and is illustrated with beautiful engravings.—Boston Christian Freeman.

One of the very best told and sweetest* juvenile stories that has been issued from the press this season. It has a most excellent moral.—Detroit Daily Advertiser.

A nice little book for a holyday present. Our little girl has read it through, and pronounces it first rate.—Hartford Christian Secretary.

It is a pleasant child's book, well told, handsomely published, and illustrated in Darley's best style.—Albany Express.

Easy Warren and his Cotemporaries : Sketch- ed for Home Circles. By WILLIAM TURNER COGGESHALL.

A friend of ours has told us that he took this book, when he had a fit of the blues, or something worse, and, by a mere homœopathic dose of it, he was restored at once to his usual good spirits. We do not wonder. The sketches are beautifully written, evincing good taste, good humor, and good principles.—Albany Argus.

Easy Warren is an easy sort of a fellow—"an extensive office," with numerous duties never discharged—and his cotemporaries are all sorts of fellows. The adventures and misadventures of the whole tribe are chronicled in an unambitious and pleasant style.—Saturday Evening Post.

Pleasant tales, pleasantly told. The dedication makes one's heart cling to this little work with a peculiar fondness. It seems full of the quiet delights of home circles, and breathes the fond, careful love of a father on every page.—National Argus, Phila.

Satire and Satirists. By JAMES HANNAY.
12mo., cloth. Price 75 cents.

The Lectures are written in an animated, terse and vigorous style, and convey what they are intended to convey, faithful images of the men of whom he treats, with sufficient local coloring to give to his sketches the character of the ages in which they lie. The author is a true lover of letters, and has great power in discriminating between the different hues of genius of the great men with whom he deals, in deducing their true character from a word or a phrase, which would escape the notice of a man of less fine perception, and in fixing on a firm basis the general vague admiration which it is the critic's business to render well defined and stable. It is the first attempt we have seen to treat of Latin writers without the least trace of pedantry, and make their merits clearly intelligible to persons who are no Latinists.—Westminster Review.

A most pleasing and agreeable book. Mr. Hannay treats his subject in the best light, not philosophically or in the way of definition, but historically and pictorially. A fine appreciation and sympathy runs through the entire volume.—Putnam's Monthly, Nov. 1854.

Full Proof of the Ministry. By the Rev. JOHN N. NORTON. (In Press.) 12mo., cloth. Price 75 cents.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Works of the Hon. William H. Seward, with a Memoir. Portrait and other engravings on steel.
3 vols., 8vo. Price per volume, cloth, $2 50; half calf,
$3 75; full calf, extra, $4 50.

[Richard Chenevix Trench.]

The Study of Words. By R. C. TRENCH, B.D.,
Professor of Divinity in King's College, London. 1 vol.,
12mo. Price 75 cents.

He discourses in a truly learned and lively manner upon the original unity of language, and the origin, derivation, and history of words, with their morality and separate spheres of meaning.—Evening Post.

This is a noble tribute to the divine faculty of speech. Popularly written, for use as lectures, exact in its learning, and poetic in its vision, it is a book at once for the scholar and the general reader.—New York Evangelist.

It is one of the most striking and original publications of the day, with nothing of hardness, dullness, or dryness about it, but altogether fresh, lively, and entertaining.—Boston Evening Traveller.

On the Lessons in Proverbs. By R. C. TRENCH, B. D., author of the "Study of Words." 12mo., cloth. Price 50 cents.

Another charming book by the author of the "Study of Words," on a subject which is so ingeniously treated, that we wonder no one has treated it before.—Yankee Blade.

It is a book at once profoundly instructive, and at the same time deprived of all approach to dryness, by the charming manner in which the subject is treated.—Arthur's Home Gazette.

It is a wide field, and one which the author has well cultivated, adding not only to his own reputation, but a valuable work to our literature.—Albany Evening Transcript.

The Synonyms of the New Testament.

By R. C. TRENCH, B. D., author of the "Study of Words," "Lessons in Proverbs," &c. &c. 12mo., cloth. Price 75 cents.

The nice distinctions between words of nearly the same significations, and the shades of different meaning often applied to the same word, render a book of this kind not only convenient, but in fact necessary. The theological student will find his labors many times wonderfully facilitated by consulting this book, and he will derive much valuable knowledge from its study. We would advise those theologians who are in the height of disputing about words and text of which they know but little, to procure this book. All may be enlightened by its perusal.—Chris. Her. & Messenger.

This volume contains the substance of a course of lectures delivered by the author to the theological students in King's College, London. It shows great exactness of thought, and a wide range of philological training; and we can hardly imagine how the subject could have been treated at once more concisely and more luminously. Every biblical student, especially every clergyman, ought to be in possession of the volume.—Pur. Recorder.

This book is well worth the perusal of every thorough theological student. Like all the works of Mr. Trench, it evinces marks of great scholarship. We have here a complete genealogy of the most striking Greek words found in the New Testament. The father and mother of some of the most familiar terms are introduced to our notice, and a critical detail of the circumstances of their birth is published in a most agreeable manner. As an exegetical aid in the solution of the meaning of the New Testament, the work under notice is invaluable.—Saturday Evening Gazette.

Macaulay's Speeches. Speeches by the Right Hon. T. B. MACAULAY, M. P., author of "The History of England," "Lays of Ancient Rome," &c. &c. 2 vols., 12mo. Price $2 00.

It is hard to say whether his poetry, his speeches in Parliament, or his brilliant essays, are the most charming; each has raised him to very great eminence, and would be sufficient to constitute the reputation of any ordinary man.—Sir Archibald Alison.

It may be said that Great Britain has produced no statesman since Burke, who has united in so eminent a degree as Macaulay, the lofty and cultivated genius, the eloquent orator, and the sagacious and far-reaching politician.—Albany Argus.

We do not know of any living English orator, whose eloquence comes so near the ancient ideal—close, rapid, powerful, practical reasoning, animated by an intense earnestness of feeling.—Courier and Enquirer.

Meagher's Speeches. Speeches on the Legislative Independence of Ireland, with Introductory Notes. By FRANCIS THOMAS MEAGHER. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Portrait. Price $1 00.

The volume before us embodies some of the noblest specimens of Irish eloquence; not florid, bombastic, nor acrimonious, but direct, manly, and convincing.—N. Y. Tribune.

There is a glowing, a burning eloquence, in these speeches, which prove the author a man of extraordinary intellect.—Boston Olive Branch.

As a brilliant and effective orator, Meagher stands unrivalled.—Portland Eclectic.

All desiring to obtain a good idea of the political history of Ireland and the movements of her people, will be greatly assisted by reading these speeches.—Syracuse Daily Star.

English, Past and Present. By Rev. Richard Chenevix Trench, B. D. 12mo, price 75 cents.

"An able work by an able author. The subject is treated under the several heads of, the English a composite language; its gains; its diminutions; the changes in its meaning; and the changed spelling."—Hartford Courant.

"The entire work is so clearly and simply written, and the information imparted is of so interesting a nature, and is so pleasantly given, that it may be read with zest by the most careless and amusement-seeking."—Boston Post.

"In its most vivid and charming sketches of the component parts of the English language, it will give as much pleasure as instruction."—Philadelphia Episcopal Recorder.

Lectures and Miscellanies. By HENRY JAMES.

1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 25.

A series of essays by one of the most generous thinkers and sincere lovers of truth in the country. He looks at society from an independent point of view, and with the noblest and most intelligent sympathy.—Home Journal.

This is the production of a mind richly endowed of a very peculiar mould. All will concede to him the merit of a vigorous and brilliant intellect.—Albany Argus.

A perusal of the essays leads us to think, not merely because of the ideas which they contain, but more because the ideas are earnestly put forth, and the subjects discussed are interesting and important to every one.—Worcester National Ægis.

They have attracted much attention both here and in Europe, where the author is considered as holding a distinctive and prominent position in the school of modern philosophy.—Albany Atlas.

The writer wields a masterly and accurate pen, and his style is good.—Boston Olive Branch.

It will have many readers, and almost as many admirers.—N. Y. Times.

Characters in the Gospel, illustrating Phases of Character at the Present Day. By Rev. E. H. CHAPIN.

1 vol., 12mo. Price 50 cents.

As we read his pages, the reformer, the sensualist, the skeptic, the man of the world, the seeker, the sister of charity and of faith, stand out from the Scriptures, and join themselves with our own living world.—Christian Enquirer.

Mr. Chapin has an easy, graceful style, neatly touching the outlines of his pictures, and giving great consistency and beauty to the whole. The reader will find admirable descriptions, some most wholesome lessons, and a fine spirit.—N. Y. Evangelist.

Its brilliant vivacity of style forms an admirable combination with its soundness of thought and depth of feeling.—Tribune.

Ballou's Review of Beecher. The Divine Character Vindicated. A Review of the "Conflict of Ages."

By Rev. MOSES BALLOU. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

His demolition of Beecher's "Conflict of Ages"—especially the fantastic and absurd conceit which forms the ground plan of that work—is most triumphant and complete.—Charleston Evening News.

The best feature of the work that we discover is its regard to decency, and its general freedom from a vituperative spirit.—Puritan Recorder.

Mr. Ballou writes clearly and in good temper, and presses his opponent with many very perplexing considerations.—New York Evangelist.

It is the fullest, clearest, most thorough review of Dr. Beecher's work which has yet appeared.—The Trumpet.

Maurice's Theological Essays. Theological Essays. By FREDERICK DENISON MAURICE, M. A., Chaplain of Lincoln's Inn. From the second London Edition, with a new Preface, and other additions. 1 vol., 12mo., cloth. Price $1 00.

These essays are well worthy the attention of every thoughtful reader, and especially of every Christian minister. He speaks with the earnestness of a vital experience, and with the kindly love of a human sensibility. It is refreshing to read one who thus draws from a living experience rather than from the dry wells of an abstract and formal theology.—Chicago Congregational Herald.

They manifest a remarkable degree of logical ability, a thorough acquaintance with the Bible, and a full reliance upon the revelations of that book for every human emergency. It is well worth a devoted study.—Louisville Journal.

Mr. Maurice is unquestionably a man of learning and ability, wielding a powerful pen, and able to invest dry, and to many minds distasteful themes, with unusual interest.—Worcester National Ægis.
